Tanya Cornish is a well known excellent Country Music entertainer here in South Australia and has appeared at gigs around the traps for several years.

Her lovely personality and friendly smile are like a ray of sunshine, and her live performances are always first class.

Tanya is regarded by many as more deserving of recognition for her talents, and worthy of greater acknowledgement than has recently been offered within the Australian music industry.

Tanya Cornish is a singer-songwriter with her own unique sound, style and voice that is warm and pure. She is well at home with her own original compositions, and has been known to add her personal style to many modern and traditional country songs.

Tanya has had the opportunity to write and perform with legendary country music artist Bill Chambers, and was support act for four-times golden guitar nominee Bob Corbett and the Roo Grass Band on their South Australian 'Lucky Country Town Hall' tour.

She recently performed in the South Australian Champion of Champions and was awarded Female Runner Up. Her gracious energy can be seen on stage at Country Music Festivals all around Australia, including Tamworth.

Tanya's love for country music and live performances continues to attract her to enthusiastically pursue her dreams of a musical career; following in the footsteps of previous and current inspirational country music legends.

The future of Country Music in South Australia rests in the hands of people like Tanya Cornish and her contemporaries. Best wishes Tanya!
