Hi Club Members and Friends

This will be my final Gawler Country Music Club Newsletter and I will no longer be involved in developing our club's website.

Due to personal health issue I'll be handing over the reins to Stewart Ray who has considerable experience in multimedia and will no doubt provide a fresh new approach towards keeping readers and web-surfers well informed on Country Music issues.

Thanks to everyone who has subscribed and contributed to our newsletter over the years. A special thanks to both Tina Chapman for managing Ma's Kitchen and for proofreading; and to Dot Burke who has provided a regular touch of humour each month in Dot's Spot. (Sorry to hear you're unwell Dot. Best wishes...)

Credit goes to our Committee for putting up with my often opposite views on many topics, and thanks to club members with whom I have shared friendship and common interests.

There will no doubt be many changes in the development of Country Music in South Australia over the years ahead. I have done my best to be fully inclusive of fresh new Country Music talent by providing front page coverage to young artists; and attempting to encourage them to take the initiative and communicate.

Communication is what creates opportunity. The best entertainers in the world will never become successful without effective communication. I encourage tutors, parents, educators and music promoters to get the message through to... especially young artists...to develop confidence and skills in communicating... this is just as important as your singing and musical skills.

On a final note; thanks for having me as your Newsletter/Web Editor for the past 9+ years; and thanks for your friendship; it's been a real pleasure.

President's Report November 2014

G'Day Members & Friends.

Not long now till Christmas. We had a busy weekend for November. On Saturday we were a part of the Playford Alive Community Fun Day. We were able to promote our club in a way we hadn't done before. It was a fantastic day with plenty of entertainment.

Well, moving onto our November show it was brilliant, Heartland had 30 new songs on the agenda and boy they were great. We had a great afternoon with a good crowd looking to have fun. Gary Daniel was our guest artist and he also performed some great songs. Well done guys we all enjoyed the day.

Moving onto our Christmas special, we have Bernie & The Bandits with Derani Sanders as our guest artist. Another show not to be missed.

Until then.
Keep It Country

Great Women of Country is Melinda Schneider and Beccy Cole's heartfelt homage to the songs and songwriters who have shaped them.

Fast Food Advice

I decided to have takeaway for lunch today, so I pulled into MacDonalds and was greeted by a young girl wearing a burqa.

It was dirty and tattered. Kind of put me off. So I decided to go across the road to Hungry Jacks. There I was greeted by a young woman wearing a burqa. Hers was clean and tidy and well kept.

That's when I realised that :---

The burqa's are better at Hungry Jacks

Loretta Lynn

Loretta has just signed a deal with Legacy Recordings for several albums of new songs, recorded over the past seven years at the famed Cash Cabin Studio in Hendersonville, outside Nashville. The recordings were produced by Loretta's daughter Patsy Russell and John Carter Cash, son of Johnny Cash and June Carter.
