

That Woz the Day That Woz!

Michaela gives dancing a miss!

Leoni's Zac

They were funny looking buildings,
that were once a way of life,
If you couldn't sprint the distance,
then you really were in strife.

They were nailed, they were wired, but were mostly falling down,
There was one in every yard, in every house, in every town.

They were given many names, some were even funny,
But to most of us, we knew them as the outhouse or the dunny.

I've seen some of them all gussied up, with painted doors and all,
But it really made no difference, they were just a port of call.

Now my old man would take a bet, he'd lay an even pound,
That you wouldn't make the dunny with them turkeys hangin' round.

They had so many uses, these buildings out the back,"
You could even hide from mother, so you wouldn't get the strap.

That's why we had good cricketers, never mind the bumps,
We used the pathway for the wicket and the dunny door for stumps.

Now my old man would sit for hours, the smell would rot your socks,
He read the daily back to front in that good old thunderbox.

And if by chance that nature called sometime through the night,
You always sent the dog in first, for there was no flamin' light.

And the dunny seemed to be the place where crawlies liked to hide,
But never ever showed themselves until you sat inside.

There was no such thing as Sorbent, no tissues there at all,
Just squares of well read newspaper, a hangin' on the wall.

If you had some friendly neighbours, as neighbours sometimes are,
You could sit and chat to them, if you left the door ajar.

Murray Mac and True Grit put on a real good June 2014 show. A selection of good ole country songs; Take These Chains, The Losing Side of Me, with mixed genre 60's favourites had the dance floor busy for the whole show. Soni Francis also added to the experience with some of here favourites.

Guest Artist Juliet Oliver also put on a great show. Her selection of songs, and strong voice had the whole audience mesmerized. Well done Juliet.

Another great show, thanks to Gawler Country Music Club, the artists and you the audience.

When suddenly you got the urge, and down the track you fled,
Then of course the magpies were there to peck you on your head.

Then the time there was a wet, the rain it never stopped,
If you had an urgent call, you ran between the drops.

The dunny man came once a week, to these buildings out the back,
And he would leave an extra can, if you left for him a zac.

For those of you who've no idea what
I mean by a zac,
Then you're too young to have ever had, a dunny out the back!

Dot's Spot!

Unwanted Gifts

A constantly nagged and harried husband living in Parafield decided to buy his mother-in-law a cemetery plot as a Christmas gift.

The next year Christmas came again and this year he didn't buy her any present.

His mother-in-law was upset and asked the son-in-law why she was forgotten this Christmas time.

The angry son-in-law responded, 'Well, you still haven't used the gift I bought you last year.'

Some people are never happy with their gifts.

If you happen to win this gift in our Country Music raffle, you ay wish to pass it on, or, recycle it!

Words from Tracy

Hi everyone,

We (The Sherrahs) are excited to be heading your way in July, to the Gawler Country Music Club.

The band is made up of Paul Orchard on Drums, Steve and Michelle Sherrah (Vocals and Acoustic Guitar), Tracy and Anthony Stewart (Vocals, Bass, Electric and Acoustic Guitars). The mandolin may be coming out of the cupboard too, with the flute making a guest appearance with young Kane, and Amy Lea is sure to sing some country classics.

We've got some great songs for you to dance and listen to from the great old westerns, like Tumbling Tumble Weeds, to the big harmonies of Make Believe.

With a rich history of country music that combines our Australian and New Zealand influences, you'll have a great day.

Come along ...
Keeping it Country
