'Juliet Oliver'

What's in a name?

Our Juliet may or may not be familiar with the story of Romeo and Juliet by William Shakespeare; however, she may be interested to know, Juliet has become one of the most romantic names in English literature.

It was Shakespeare's Juliet who said "What's in a name?"

Well, this year, the name Juliet Oliver is becoming well known in the Country Music scene in South Australia and wider afield.

Juliet Oliver heads to Gawler Country Music Club on Sunday 15th June appearing on stage with Murray Mac & True Grit.

She is now on a Country Music roller coaster, hoping to emulate the careers of her country music idols Dolly Parton and Taylor Swift.

Teenager Juliet from Hope Forest recently attended a course at the Country Music Association of Australia's Academy of Country Music. She was one of a handful of young performers from across the country who received a scholarship to attend the course.

Juliet plays piano and guitar, and began singing lessons in Year 5 at school. Still developing her skills and experience in on-stage performance, Juliet says, "I don't care if I'm singing in front of three, 300 or 3000 people..." And guess what...!

By visiting the Dolly Parton's concert at the Adelaide Entertainment Centre, Juliet has now lived through the thrill of a 'big time' stage performance, and... her sights are now set.

With newfound motivation and determination the future for Juliet sure is now looking good. She is appearing at various Country Music Clubs and venues throughout SA and is looking forward to develop her career.

Listen to her track 'If I Die Young' on <http://www.reverbNation.com/JulietOliver> or on our Facebook page at Gawler Country Music Club's website.

Juliet now looks forward to expanding her knowledge and experience.

You can book her for your event by contacting Gawler Country Music Club's President Keith Warren on (08) 8255 8920.

Juliet, Juliet, wherefore art thou Juliet!

See Juliet on our Gawler Country Music Club Facebook Page.
