

That Woz the Day That Woz!

The 18th May 2014 was a special day if it was your Birthday, and it was also a special day at our club if you were hoping to be entertained. The City Cowboys stormed up a lively mix of Country, 40/60 and fun. They kept the dance floor busy with music for line dancers, two steppers, waltzers and wanna-be-dancers. Then came the silence...as Ella plucked out a tune on her guitar. Emma was unfortunately suffering from laryngitis and was unable to use her vocal chords. However, Nicola Prince came to the rescue. Well done girls, you both obviously impressed your audience. We hope to have you along again.

Smash Hit Show!!!

Sat 10th May 2014 Fundraiser for Cancer Tribute to Johnny Cash & June Carter Show with Trevor Keilar, Robyn Gleeson and Bruce McKenzie Vine Inn, Nuriootpa by the Barossa Area

News from Roving Reporter Leoni

The "Barossa Area Fundraiser for Cancer" last night raised approx $6000.00 from their "Tribute To Johnny Cash and June Carter show". Thanks to the 300 who packed the house at the Vine Inn. Well done everyone!!!

Interstate Artists, Trevor Keilar and Robyn Gleeson, backed by fellow Interstater Bruce Mc Kenzie on bass, Dave Verall on Rhythm Guitar, and Peter Datsun on drums, made a great combination for this smash hit show!!!

Read more about it in the June edition of the Gawler Country Music Club Newsletter.

Personality plus on stage, throughout the show. Trevor, Dave and Bruce bounced off each other with quick wit, and had their audience rocking, as they interacted with cheeky comments to their audience and vice versa.

The audience really fired up when Trevor played his "Harmonica Medley" of old sing along numbers and he had the audience swaying and singing along like a well trained Choir!!

Trevor and Robyn gave a great performance with their "Johnny Cash and June Carter Tribute"; nice harmonies and Bruce harmonized as well. They did their show without a running commentary of Johnny and June – just got right into their music!! Trevor and Bruce told many short jokes, and they had the audience in stitches.

Robyn bowled the audience over with her lovely voice singing several covers on her own; Patsy Cline and Isla Grant to name just two. Dave Verall kicked off the second half of the show with a few numbers that went over very well.

My dad had a big Dance Band in Naracoorte, and he always said, "When they ask for more, give them more, but leave them wanting more". This was true of these Entertainers for this show!!!

A Top night of entertainment!!!

Dot's Spot!

Dot reports some serious crimes in and around Gawler. Two police officers recently responded to a crime scene behind a local grocery store. A detective from Elizabeth was already at the scene.

"What happened?" asked the first officer.

"Male, about twenty-five, covered in Raisin Bran and dead as a door nail."

"Good grief," says the second officer. "Didn't we have one covered in Frosted Flakes yesterday? And Multigrain last week?"

"You're right, I'm afraid," said the detective, "This looks like the work of a cereal killer."
