Hi Folks

It doesn't seem like ten years since King of Australian Country Music Slim Dusty passed away.

There is no doubt that memories of his contribution to Country Music and the Australian culture will remain in bronze for many decades.

Country Music History will echo the names of 'Slim Dusty' and his contemporaries well into the next century.

Cast in Bronze

The enduring legacy of Australian country music legend Slim Dusty, created by Gunnedah's sculptor Tanya Bartlett, is now set in bronze at Tamworth... the nation's Country Music Capital.

The New South Wales Premier officially unveiled the bronze sculpture depicting the late entertainer and his widow Joy McKean.

The $180,000 artwork has been installed on Peel Street, the Boulevard of Dreams, and the centre for buskers during the annual 10-day festival.

Slim died from cancer in September 2003 at the age of 76... his music lives on.

President's Report February 2014

G'Day Members & Friends,

What a great show we had with The Hoffmans. They provided a totally new routine performing a great mix of Country, Pop, and Classics complemented by a background slideshow and topped off with some great comedy.

The dance floor was busy all day and it was a fantastic day.

As an initiative to encourage our young up and coming artists, we will be introducing some young talent to our shows from March through to August.

We will start with Nicola Prince who will be our first guest. Carole Sturtzel & Wild Oat will be the band for our next club show.

Two of our committee members have decided to step down from the committee. I thank Tash & Leanne for their input since coming on board. Once again thanks ladies.

In closing I would like to wish Barbara O'Daniel a very Happy Birthday for the 11th of February. Hope you had a great day Barbara...

So until next month.
Keep It Country

GRETCHEN WILSON TOUR Live Entertainment at Munno Para

Redneck Woman Gretchen Wilson makes her third Australian tour this month (March) to promote her seventh album Right On Time.

Gretchen 40, and Morgan Evans play St Kilda Palais on March 12 and Eaton's Hill Hotel, Brisbane, on March 13 before the seventh CMC Rocks The Hunter festival March 14-16.

STOP PEOPLE FROM BUGGING YOU

Old aunts used to come up to me at weddings, poking me in the ribs and cackling, telling me, "You're next." They stopped after I started doing the same thing to them at funerals.
