Every Australian Golden Guitar winner from this year's Country Music Awards will be performing at the Muster including Album of the Year and Female Artist of the year winner Sara Storer and Group or Duo of the Year winner O'Shea.

Also on the bill this year is ARIA Award winner and folk favourite Josh Pyke, break-out singer-songwriter Thelma Plum who has been making a name for herself on the Australian Festival circuit during the last 12 months, 2013 Australia's Got Talent Winners Uncle Jed as well as.

some of Australian Country Music's biggest stars, Adam Harvey, Beccy Cole, McAllister Kemp and the official Muster Ambassadors for 2014, The McClymonts

When asked to comment on what he considers to be one of the more exciting features of the line-up, Muster Program Manager, Jeff Chandler said "It's an amazing time for music in Australia right now with so many fresh and original artists coming through. While the Muster prides itself on presenting the cream of the established stars of country, it's the strong showing by new artists that tells us that the future of music is in great hands." The Gympie Music Muster is a true celebration of the spirit of Country Australia and regional communities. The camaraderie of the more than 50,000 patrons each year is evident and festival organisers have a saying which sums up the atmosphere of the festival perfectly, "There are no strangers at the Muster, only friends you haven't met yet".

Thursday 28 August to Sunday 31st August 2014

Thanks to our Club Members for renewing your membership!

Although this month's show was not on the usual 3rd Sunday of the month due to a date clash with Easter, our event was another great success.

Bernie and the Bandits were as entertaining as ever. Now with their new Bass Player and Bernie excelling on sax, when these guys bring in their harmonies...It's something special! Well done guys.

Sarah Cremer at the age of 11 showed the audience what a young artist is capable of. Her singing is so good and Sarah will no doubt be attracting many fans as she matures. Well done Sarah!

Kevin Merritt seems to have stepped up a notch closer to stardom. His singing has improved immensely since he last performed at our club. I'm told he is now being tutored by our Club Sponsor Chris Fretwell.

Kieran Rooney a new face on the scene created a good first impression. There is no doubt we will be seeing the return of these artists to our club in the future.

Dot's Spot!

A Polish man moved to the USA and married an American girl. Although his English was far from perfect, they got along very well. One day he rushed into a lawyer's office and asked him if he could arrange a divorce for him. The lawyer said that getting a divorce would depend on the circumstances, and asked him the following questions;

Have you any grounds?

Yes, an acre and a half and a nice little home.

No, I mean what is the foundation of this case?

It made of concrete.

Does your wife beat you up?

Is your wife a nagger?

No, she white.

Why do you want this divorce?

She going to kill me.

What makes you think that?

I got proof.

What kind of proof?

She going to poison me. She buy a bottle at drugstore and put it on shelf in bathroom. I can read, and it say:

THE ITALIAN SECRET TO A LONG MARRIAGE.

At St. Peter's Catholic Church in Adelaide, they have weekly husbands' marriage seminars.

At the session last week, the priest asked Giuseppe, who said he was approaching his 50th wedding anniversary, to take a few minutes and share some insight into how he had managed to stay married to the same woman all these years.

Giuseppe replied to the assembled husbands, 'Wella, I've tried to treat her nicea, spenda da money on her, but besta of all is, I tookaher to Italy for the 25th anniversary!'

The priest responded, 'Giuseppe, you are an amazing inspiration to all the husbands here! Please tell us what you are planning for your wife for your 50th anniversary?'

Giuseppe proudly replied, " I gonna go pick her up."
