'Too Good To Let Fold'

Hi Folks

Due to Phill's nasty fall, Phill and Dawn Dunning have had to step down from running the Gawler Country Music Clubs Open Mike (Phill's Open Mike)

I would like to thank them personally for their valued time spent running the event, however, the Gawler Country Music Club Open Mike will continue to run with myself, Fred Payne taking on the relevant duties.

There will be no changes in how the event is run; the only change will be the name of the event which will simply be called the Gawler Country Music Club Open Mike.

I look forward to receive the same support and respect Phill and Dawn received.

Farmer John

Farmer John once lived on a quiet rural highway but as time went by, the traffic slowly built up and eventually got so heavy and so fast that his free range chickens were being run over, at a rate of three to six a week.

So Farmer John called the local police station to complain, "You've got to do something about all these people driving so fast and killing all my chickens," he said to the local police officer.

"What do you want me to do?" asked the policeman.

"I don't care, just do something about those crazy drivers!"

So the next day the policeman had the Council erect a sign that said:
SCHOOL CROSSING

Three days later Farmer John called the policeman and said, "You've still got to do something about these drivers. The 'school crossing' sign seems to make them go even faster!"

So again, they put up a new sign:
SLOW: CHILDREN AT PLAY.

That really sped them up. So Farmer John called and said, "Your signs are no good. Can I put up my own sign?"

In order to get Farmer John off his back said "Sure. Put up your own sign.

The phone calls to the Police Station stopped, but curiosity got the better of the Officer, so he called Farmer John, "How's the problem with the speeding drivers. did you put up your sign?"

"Oh, I sure did and not one chicken has been killed.

The policeman was really curious and thought he'd better go out and take a look at the sign. He also thought the sign might be something the Police could use elsewhere, to slow drivers down..

So he drove out to Farmer John's house.

His jaw dropped the moment he saw the sign.

Telling the Truth!

My Favorite Animal

Our teacher asked what my favorite animal was, and I said, "Fried chicken."
She said I wasn't funny, but she couldn't have been right, because everyone else laughed.

My parents told me to always tell the truth. I did.

Fried chicken is my favorite animal.

I told my dad what happened, and he said my teacher was probably a member of PETA.

He said they love animals very much.

I do, too.

Especially chicken, pork and beef.

Anyway, my teacher sent me to the principal's office. I told him what happened, and he laughed, too. Then he told me not to do it again.

The next day in class my teacher asked me what my favorite live animal was.

I told her it was chicken.

She asked me why, so I told her it was because you could make them into fried chicken.

She sent me back to the principal's office.

He laughed, and told me not to do it again.

I don't understand.

My parents taught me to be honest, but my teacher doesn't like it when I am.

Today, my teacher asked me to tell her what famous person I admired most.

I told her, "Colonel Sanders."

Guess where I am now...

'Dog-a-Thon'

Miranda Lambert is celebrating Thanksgiving Thursday, (November 27th) a little differently this year. On Turkey Day, the country superstar will be joining lots of her furry friends for a special television event honoring rescue dogs.

Lambert will appear during the 'Dog-a-Thon,' joined by other celebrities whose lives have been changed by owning a rescue dog. The country star and her famous friends will share their own stories of how rescue dogs have impacted their lives and give viewers the opportunity to foster or adopt rescue dogs themselves.
