Hi Club Members

Behind the scenes your committee has been busy making arrangement to move into our new venue destination The Grenville Centre in Elizabeth.

'Thanks to the staff at the Grenville Centre for your assistance in making us feel welcome, and for the advice you have provided.'

Gawler Country Music Club has now arrived at Platform 10 Playford Boulevard Elizabeth and is now waiting for new passengers, Club Members and Country Music Fans to come onboard to enjoy a stimulating journey of entertainment, dancing and fun.

Food and drinks are served with a smile and you won't even hear the sound of the engines, or feel that uncomfortable rocking motion as you approach the next stop. Gawler Country Music Club is taking you on an enjoyable adventure through the years, to experience the old and new songs of country artists from around the world.

Songs of the Australian Outback and glowing campfires; popular songs from the Wild West... New songs from original artists and some up tempo, bouncy beat songs associated with the rocking rhythm of them ole steam locomotives.

Enjoy dining in a great social atmosphere while also indulging in the pleasures of a fantastic four hour musical excursion...

It's now all happening at 'The Grenville' platform 10, Playford Boulevard, Elizabeth.

CU there...

YOUR ENGLISH LESSON

We'll begin with box, and the plural is boxes,
But the plural of ox should be oxen, not oxes.
Then one fowl is goose, but two are called geese,
Yet the plural of moose should never be meese.

You may find a lone mouse or a whole lot of mice,
But the plural of house is houses, not hice.
If the plural of man is always called men,
When couldn't the plural of pan be called pen?

The cow in the plural may be cows or kine,
But the plural of vow is vows, not vine.
And I speak of a foot, and you show me your feet,
But I give a boot; would a pair be called beet?

If one is a tooth and a whole set are teeth,
Why shouldn't the plural of booth be called beeth?
If the singular is this and the plural is these,
Why shouldn't the plural of kiss be nicknamed kесе?

Then one may be that, and three may be those,
Yet the plural of hat would never be hose.
We speak of a brother, and also of brethren,
But though we say mother, we never say methren.

The masculine pronouns are he, his and him,
But imagine the feminine she, shis and shim!
So our English, I think you will all agree,
Is the trickiest language you ever did see.

I take it you already know
Of tough and bough and cough and dough?
Others may stumble, but not you
On hiccough, thorough, slough, and through.

Well done! And now you wish, perhaps
To learn of less familiar traps?
Beware of heard, a dreadful word
That looks like beard and sounds like bird.

I'm led to believe that modern school teaching methods are not as strict on spelling... I guess that means it doesn't matter if you spell words wrongly.
