Chicken Noodle Stir-Fry

Ingredients

6 boneless skinless chicken thighs (about 1 lb/500g)
1 tbsp (15 mL) so sauce
1 tbsp (15 mL) sesame oil
1/4 tsp (1 mL) pepper
2 cloves garlic, minced
1 lb (500 g) baby bokchoy
2 tbsp (25 mL) vegetable oil
1 sweet red pepper, thinly sliced
1 tsp (5 mL) minced gingerroot
2 pkg (each 100 g) dried noodles
1/4 cup (50 mL) hoisin sauce
1 green onion, thinly sliced

Cut chicken into cubes. In bowl, toss together chicken, soy sauce, sesame oil, pepper and half of the garlic; marinate for 10 minutes. Cut baby bok choy in half lengthwise; set aside.

In wok or large skillet, heat 1 tbsp (15 mL) of the vegetable oil over high heat; stir-fry chicken mixture until browned and juices run clear when chicken is pierced, about 3 minutes. Add bok choy, red pepper, ginger and remaining garlic; stir-fry until vegetables are tender-crisp, about 2 minutes. Transfer to plate. Add 1-1/2 cups (375 mL) water and remaining vegetable oil to wok; bring to boil. spice, add noodles to wok; cover and steam until softened and loose, about 3 minutes. Break noodles apart with spoon. Return chicken mixture to wok. Add hoisin sauce and green onion; toss together until hot.
Now go and hunt for those chopsticks...

Staying Young!

90 year-old Vince went to his doctor to get a physical.

A few days later, the doctor saw Vince walking down the street with a gorgeous young woman on his arm.

A couple of days later, the doctor spoke to Vince and said, 'You're really doing great, aren't you?'

Vince replied, 'Just doing what you said, Doc: 'Get a hot mamma and be cheerful.'

The doctor said, 'I didn't say that... I said, 'You've got a heart murmur; be careful!'
