October President's Report

Hello Members & Friends,

I will start this month's report off with the sad news that our long time member Dot Burke has passed away, losing her long battle with cancer. Dot was a great follower of country music. Going around to most of the clubs when she was able to. Rest in peace Dot. Our thoughts go to her family

I would like to thank the Adelaide Country Music Club for awarding me their Industrial Award. Thanks guys, I appreciate it very much.

Well, onto our October show. Numbers were down just slightly on the last few months, but were still good numbers, We had many complaints about the band, The Road Runners. They were a great Rock N Roll Band, if it was a Rock N Roll Show. All the bands that I book sign off on a "Confirmation of Gig" form, and on it, it states Country Music must be played. They were asked around six times to play country music but failed miserably all day. They would have to improve big time before I book them again, if ever. We try our best to give these new bands a go, but most times they do what we ask of them. Moving on to our November show, we will have the City Cowboys with guest artist David Pearce. We have not had David Pearce for quite a while, so this should be a good show. We have just received the new flyers for the Horsham Country Music Festival for 2019. This will be their last, as their committee are aging and most have decided to step down. Another great festival folds. Thanks guys, you have done a great job over the years.

So, until next month.

Regards to all. Keep It Country.

Day's Gone By . Can You Remember These? Author Unknown

1. A little house with three bedrooms, one bathroom and one car on the street.
A mower that you had to push, to make the grass look neat.
In the kitchen on the wall we only had one phone,
and no need for recording things, someone was always home.
2. We only had a living room where we would congregate, unless it was at meal time in the kitchen where we ate.
We had no need for family rooms or extra rooms to dine.
When meeting as a family those two rooms would work out fine.
3. We only had one TV set and channels maybe two.
But always there was one of them with something worth the view.
For snacks we had potato chips that tasted like chips,
and if you wanted flavour there was always onion dip.
4. Shop-bought snacks were rare because my mother liked to cook and nothing can compare to snacks in Betty Crocker's book.
Week ends were for family trips or staying home to play.
We all did things together even go to church to pray.
5. When we did our weekend trips depending on the weather, no one stayed at home because we liked to do things together.
Sometimes we would separate to do things on our own,
but we knew where the others were without a mobile phone.
6. Then there were the movies with your favourite movie star,
and nothing can compare to watching movies in your car.
Then there were the picnics at the peak of summer season, pack a lunch and find some trees and never need a reason.
7. Get a cricket game together with all the friends you know, have real action playing ball and no video games.
Remember when the doctor used to be the family friend,
and didn't need insurance or a lawyer to defend?
8. The way that he took care of you or what he had to do, because he took an oath and strived to do the best for you.
Remember going to the store and shopping casually,
and when you went to pay for it you used your own money.
9. Nothing that you had to swipe or punch in some amount,
and remember when the cashier person had to really count?
The milkman used to go from door to door,
and it was just a few pence more than going to the store.
10. There was a time mailed letters came right to your door, without a lot of junk mail ads sent out by every store.
The postman knew each home by name and knew where it was sent;
there were not loads of mail addressed to "present occupants."
11. There was a time when just one glance was all that it would take,
and you would know the kind of car, the model and the make.
They didn't look like turtles trying to squeeze out every mile;
they were streamlined, white walls, fins and really had some style.
12. One time the music that you played when ever you would jive, was from a vinyl, big-holed record call a forty-five.
The record player had a post to keep them all in line and the record would drop down and play one at a time.
13. Oh sure, we had our problems then, just like we do today and always we were striving, for a better way.
Oh, the simple life we lived still seems like so much fun, how can you explain a game, just kick the can and run?
14. This life seemed so much easier and slower in some ways.
I love the new technology but I sure do miss those days.
So time moves on, and so do we ,and nothing stays the same, but I sure love to reminisce and walk down memory lane.
15. With all today's technology we grant that it's a plus!
But it's fun to look way back and say, Hey look, guys,  THAT WAS US **

*LIFE IS SHORT SMILE WHILE YOU STILL HAVE TEETH ****

November President's Report

G'Day Members & Friends,

Well our busy weekend has passed.

Our Rock N Roll show on Saturday night was a complete flop attendance wise. Very few people through the door which was disappointing for the band and meant there were not many up dancing. I think that will be our last Rock N Roll show, and we will stick to what we know best which is country music.

Well on to our Sunday show, and what a great day it was. Good numbers through the door, and plenty up dancing. Well done City Cowboys! David Pearce was our guest artist for the day and was great, especially for someone who is 80yrs old. We had a great day, thanks guys. Our caterers will be doing a Christmas lunch again this year. Please check out the enclosed menu flyer.

Moving onto our Christmas show, we will be entertained by the Sherrah Family Band, with our guest artist Amy Lea. This will be another great show for all to enjoy. As this will be the last Newsletter before Christmas. We, the Committee, would like to wish you a very Merry Christmas and a prosperous New Year. I have almost finished setting up next year's program for the whole year. We have some great entertainment booked in. So until next month.

Regards to all

Keep It Country.
