The Road From Kempsey

It's a long Long Straight Road.... But the Lights on the Hill sure have attracted rising star Amos Morris to perform at our Gawler Country Music Club.

All the way from Slim Dusty's hometown of Kempsey, Amos will travel to perform at the Slim Dusty Tribute Show at Munno Para Bowling and Recreation Club on Sunday Sept 17th.

Also appearing are Tracey Coster, Tom Maxwell, Slim Connors, Greg Semmler and Murray Mac & True Grit.

'Don't miss this one folks!'

Amos enjoys performing traditional Australian bush ballads... mainly the music of our king of country Slim Dusty and Australian greats such as Joy McKean, Brian K Kelly, Stan Coster, Shorty Ranger, Gordon Parsons and Graham Connors.

A very popular rising star on the bush balladeer scene, Amos has received great support and friendship from other balladeers.

Amos is an enthusiastic performer committed to preserving Australian bush ballads for young and old.

Gifted with a smooth vibrato voice, Amos is able to sing many covers from overseas artists too, including Jim Reeves, Hank Williams, Merle Haggard, Johnny Cash, Kenny Rogers and Charlie Pride. He also sings modern music from his own generation. Amos has a large repertoire to fill a 4 hour solo show.

Amos trusts he can continue to help people feel good through his music. He says 'Thank everyone for your support.'

Amos is proud to participate in various fundraising events around the country in an effort to help boost the funds being raised to build the Slim Dusty Centre in Kempsey.

Events are being held nationally by many community organisations.

'It's good to see country music lovers and performers getting behind Slims dream of building a museum in Kempsey to house all the memorabilia that he and Joy gathered over their lifelong career and travels.'
