

WANTED

Leanne Raylene Gloria and Terry

If you have seen any of these ladies visiting Country Music venues there could be a Big Reward.

Your reward will be enjoying the company of four lively country music fans whose smiles and humour would cheer up any event.

Tiffney Stroh and Graeme Hugo

If you see either of these characters advertised as appearing near you.... Buy tickets quick....

Walk up
Artist
Doug
Daimlan

Our Own Stories

'Country Style'

Visitors Veronica and Allan from Salisbury Downs who are Members of The British Working Mans Club at Wingfield certainly know how to enjoy themselves.

Birthday Boy!

Pop... Richard Scott Ramsay was born in Dundee many many years ago...

Don't tell anyone but the year was 1932.

He has lived in Australia since 1968.

I'm not sure if Richard eats his haggis or porridge each morning, but he certainly enjoyed tucking into his Birthday Cake. Happy Birthday Richard!

Ma's Country Kitchen

Ma is in Queensland On Holiday

A standing ovation for Tracey Rains and 'How Great Thou Art'. You certainly are a great singer Tracey.

Nathaniel's rendition of 'He Still Calls Her Angel' was well in advance of his years.

Holding Hands Forever

Roland and his dancing partner grace the dance floor. They too are coming along to the W&CH It! Show on the 26th August. See you there folks!

Feeling the Heat!

Lorraine from ParaHills couldn't resist telling me about being a Country Music Fan.....Ha Ha!

The Sound of Engines

Bill and Annette from Nuriootpa take a break from the groans of Motor Engineering to enjoy the sound of music.