Connie Kis contacted us recently and she gave her approval to include this article.

Connie Kis Andersen was this year named Best Western Australian Country Music Female Vocalist at the 2006 Boyup Brook Country Music Festival in W.A.

Danish born Connie Kis migrated with her family to Australia when she was two years old.

She first began learning the banjo-mandolin at the age of eight and by the time she was eleven years old, Connie Kis was performing at local town hall concerts and on guest spots with Australian Country Music legend Slim Dusty, in her then home town of Bourke in NSW.

Connie has performed as the lead singer in several bands, trios and duos, the most current of which are pop cover duo, Kis'n Tel and acoustic original country duo, a.k.a.Kis.

Her 6 piece band, 'The Hired Guns' come together to showcase the original country songs from Connie's new CD, Gone Wishin. Connie has also appeared with Don McLean in Europe and in Nashville USA.

Since 1998, when her focus had turned to a full-time career in music Connie Kis has had material signed to GoldWax Records, an independent record label based in Atlanta, USA.

Connie's CD GONE WISHIN' was released to Australian markets in September 2005

This 15 track CD includes passionate melodies and heartfelt lyrics written by Connie. Each track communicates a range of emotions and will appeal to true Country Music fans.

Kiss My Cheek Connie's current hit single is out now and will grab any country music fan with its strong catchy hook, irreverent lyrics and great bluegrass feel! Earlier this year it reached the CMAA top 30 Country Music Chart

Quote: "You will love the track; Gone Wishin' from the album of the same name. A good selection of tracks on it and one album I feel that should be in everyone's country music collection." Jeff Dunn, presenter National Australian Radio Program, 'Good Morning Country'.

Call in when you next pass this way Connie. It would be good to meet up with you at Gawler Country Music Club.
