Bubbling Barossa

The Barossa Valley has gained world wide recognition for its production of quality wines.

Its famous Shiraz and Riesling and its widely acclaimed restaurants make the Barossa one of Australia's major international tourist attractions.

Within The Barossa's tranquil rural setting one will experiences the down-to-earth Aussie spirit of its local people. The Barossa has a uniquely fascinating yet pleasantly relaxing atmosphere.

But there's more.....!

In addition to the many attractions of the Barossa Valley there exists a group of enthusiastic local residents who are so full of vitality and hospitality that one could easily fall in love with the area and its entire population.

Wot's this got to do with Country Music?

Well.... at Buna Terrace in Nuriootpa there exists a venue, where, on the second Sunday of each month at the local Bowling Club there are the sounds of Country Music, loud applause, the smell of fresh home made soup, and the friendly chatter of one or two hundred people.

OK Christmas and New Year celebrations are over but memories linger on.

Christmas 2008 at the Barossa Country Music Club was something very special. Two bands, Santa Claus, raffle prizes, calendar gifts, yummy food, a real live pixie with bells on and turned up toes, and loads of horny adults. Ahem! What I mean is adults wearing festive Christmas deer antlers.(See pic)

The working relationship and social connection between the Barossa Country Music Club and all other CM clubs in South Australia are noticeably harmonious and strong.

The Barossa Country Music Team

For many years now Gawler Country Music Club has enjoyed the interaction and friendly communication between our clubs.

The GCMC web page 'History of Gawler Country Music Club' identifies and explains how Gawler CMC has grown over the years, and how it has moved to progressively larger venues.

The Barossa Country Music Club's venue, because of its size, does not facilitate dancing. However, for regular Country fans the music, the atmosphere and the friendship is a delight... like a dream come true.

How does one measure success in Country Music?

Many organisations grow so big, so quickly that management becomes difficult ...problems, personality clashes and yes...conflict.

What is so special about The Barossa Country Music Club is its enthusiastic committee, its loyal members and the pleasant feeling of togetherness.

Have you heard the saying 'Small is Beautiful'? Well this is one of the many attractions of The Barossa Country Music Club.

Thanks for being who you are folks and....

'Lang may yer lumb reek!' (Best wishes to all.)
