

That Woz The Day That Woz!

Alison Hams & Band with Mark Tempany, Emily Reed and Tiffney Stroh

Another good show. It's great to see young entertainers appearing at our venue.

Alison Hams & Band provided music ranging from country to Rock n Roll. The musical talents of each artist were evident throughout the whole performance. In his solo spot Mark Tempany's mellow voice filled the air. He had listeners spellbound with his singing and finger style guitar playing.

His own song 'Australian Child' based on Mark's personal experiences; and performed in the style of John Denver, displayed his tremendous voice range.

Yet again Tiffney performed at her usual high standard. Her career as an artist is about to move into second gear. Watch out for Tiff.

The lovely voice and stage presence of Emily is something special. 'Sands in the Bay' and 'Cowboy Take Me Away' were performed with true feeling.

Gawler Country Music Club thanks you all for an enjoyable show. Isn't it amazing how time flies when you're enjoying yourself.

OK the line dancing fraternity was not out in full force today but we hope to see you all at the next show.

Some people can be really funny.

Ok it's fine when your jokes are appreciated, But if one says the wrong thing in the wrong place... one has to accept the consequences.

When you tell jokes to a 'Bouncer' at Gawler Country Music Club please don't refer to his religion, race, or intelligence....

It can become sensitive....
It can become emotional....
And you can end up ouch!

Guess who?

Terry Sheehan says 'You should see the other bloke.... He's in wards 8, 9 and 10!'

- Everybody take cover. He's going to blow.
- Pardon me, Sir. Some of the ladies have asked if you wouldn't mind putting that thing away.
- Laugh and the world laughs with you. Sneeze and it's goodbye Terry!

There's nothing wrong with saying 'Hard luck!'
Just learn to do it without the snigger."

I rang up my local bowling club; I said "Is that the local bowling club?"
He said "It depends where you're calling from."

Lead: "How much am I short?"
Skip: "You ought to know, you're closer to it"
