A Tribute to the King

On Sunday September 17th 2006 throngs of Country Music fans amassed for the annual pilgrimage to Gawler Country Music Club.

Faithful country music disciples gathered in Munno Para South Australia as a mark of respect to their King of Country our Aussie icon Slim Dusty.

Never before had people gathered outside the club's venue hours before the doors were due to open.

Travellers and followers waited in anticipation to claim a seat with a clear view of the impressive host of country music artists.

The Slim Dusty fans were about to see one of the best Country Music Shows ever to be held in South Australia.

Thanks to the ongoing motivation, passion and efforts of the Gawler Country Music Club Committee and Club Members for making this annual Slim Dusty Tribute Show possible.

To our sponsors, the Sausage Sizzlers and the Adelaide Speedway Car Parking Team... To our loyal and increasing membership, and to organisers Helen and Keith Warren, we must say to you all... 'Thanks' and yes! 'Keep it Country!'

Read more about our 'Tribute to the King' on Page 6..... On behalf of us all... we hope to see you again before our next Slim Dusty Tribute Show.
