

That Woz The Day That Woz!

Sunday 18 September 2005 was a special day in the history of Gawler Country Music Club. It was the day before the anniversary of Slim Dusty's passing.

It was also the day of The Slim Dusty Tribute Show with music, memories and lumps in the throat for many artists and fans.

Emotions and excitement merged Country Music lovers flocked from afar to enjoy the event and to pay homage to their hero Slim and his legacy to country music.

Three generations of followers and the newly converted congregated to celebrate and to promote the culture of Real Australian Country Music.

Keith & Helen and the committee of Gawler Country Music Club take this opportunity to thank everyone for their help in supporting the Slim Dusty Tribute Show.

Also a big thank you to.....

Words for Fun

The words to this song express the hardship, hope and spirit of Australian 'battlers'.

The Overlanders

Chorus

So pass the billy round boys,
Don't let the pint pot stand there
For tonight we'll drink the health
Of every Overlander.

There's a trade you all know well
And it's bringing cattle over,
On every track to the gulf and back
Men know the Queensland drover.

I come from the Northern plains
Where the girls and grass are scanty
Where the creeks run dry or ten feet high
And it's either drought or plenty.

There are men from every land
From Spain and France and Flanders
They're a well mixed pack, both white and black
The Queensland Overlanders.

When we've earned a spree in town
We live like pigs in clover
And the whole dam cheque pours down the neck
Of many a Queensland drover.

As I pass along the road,
The children raise my dander
Shouting "Mother dear, take in the clothes
Here comes an Overlander".

There's a girl in Sydney Town
Who said "Please don't leave me lonely"
I said "it's sad, but my old Prad
Has room for one man only".

But I'm bound for home once more
On a Prad that's quite a goer
I can find a job with a crawling mob
On the banks of the Maranoa.
