

That Woz the Day That Woz! 16th October 2011

The 2011 Slim Dusty Tribute Show

Another successful show with excellent entertainment all round. Beginning the show with 'G'day G'day' the band Heartland showed their versatility yet again by providing many of Slim's well known songs. Keith Jamieson displayed his talents by singing many of Slim's songs and a number of songs he himself had written and recorded in true Country fashion. Alisha Smith was an absolute whiz on guitar. She leave's many experienced guitarists in the shade. Tracey Stewart was an absolute delight to listen to. She too outshone many well established successful professions vocalists. Mitchell Shadlow provided great songs, some excellent guitar playing and a sense of humour. The grand finale 'You've Done us Proud' brought tears to many an eye. Thanks for a great show folks.

Build a Bridge and Get Over it!

I was complaining to Kay that she hadn't given me the winning raffle ticket for a long time, so as she handed my tickets she said 'These are the winners today'. Of course they weren't so I told her she was sacked. Going over to talk to Leon she told him what had happened. He said "Tell her to build a bridge and get over it" Next month I was given a parcel, some cement and popsicle sticks to build my bridge. Right I thought I'll build this bridge, it took me a little while, but I got it done and presented Leon with the bridge. He loves it. It is called Leo's Getoverit Bridge. Beware of who you complain to as you never know what you may receive in a parcel.
