Our Own Stories

By
Flo Thompson!
Of Highbury

Flo approached me at last months Slim Dusty Tribute Show clutching a folder with a number of interesting articles for our newsletter.

'You may be interested in using them' she said.... 'If not.... it doesn't matter'.

I thought to myself.....'What a nice gesture', and thanked her for her contribution.

It was 15 minutes or so later that I went over to have a chat with Flo who was accompanied by her husband Peter.

We chatted for a while and I found that this sprightly young lady, just short of 80 years of age, has many interesting stories of her own to tell.

Flo and Peter moved to Adelaide from Western Australia in 1956. She proudly revealed that she has 7 children, 16 grandchildren, and 4 great grandchildren.

Her 60th wedding anniversary is in March and she gained her driving licence at the age of 69.

The last time she did the City to Bay Walk was at the age of 70. Flo proudly told me that her daughter can't beat her time of 105 minutes.

In 1999 she completed writing a book on her family history.

Flo loves country music and she has visited the Mildura 10 day festival on 13 occasions.

Flo.....you certainly are a very interesting person. I could feel the energy radiating from you as we spoke.

Peter.....you never said much but I'm sure that Flo will keep you occupied with her interesting tales. The many experiences you have shared will no doubt bring back many fond memories.

Thanks to a lovely couple.

I will use your stories Flo and watch out for one in the next newsletter.

Best Wishes from everyone at Gawler Country Music Club.

Johnny Cakes

"Johno," Gaulburn, N.S.W

I have tasted several makes of Johnny cakes, but have never eaten anything better than those made by an old cook at a station in the Abercrombie Ranges (N.S.W.). He used a camp-oven instead of the usual frying-pan, and the cakes, split open while hot and eaten with unlimited butter.

His recipe was one cup of self-raising flour, ¼ teaspoon salt, and enough warm water to make a workable dough.

Mix well, roll out to ½ inch thickness and cut into quarters. Put a few tablespoons of fat into the warm camp-oven and when it is boiling drop in the cakes and cook 8 to 10 minutes.

Fried Johnny Cakes

Carol Jennings

Ingredients: Makes 24

2 cups all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon sugar
¾ teaspoon baking power
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper (optional)
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
¾ cup milk
Oil

Mix flour, sugar, baking power, salt and pepper in a medium bowl. Cut in butter until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Stir in milk. Don't over mix. Divide dough into 24 pieces. Pat out each piece into a flat cake about one-half inch thick. Heat about one-quarter inch oil in a large skillet or saucepan. Fry cakes (as many as you can get into the pan) until golden, turning once. This takes three to four minutes. Drain on paper towels. Serve warm with butter and honey. If you have any left over, just split them, butter and pan toast for breakfast.

1. In a South Australian family, each girl has as many sisters as brothers but each boy has twice as many sisters as brothers. How many children are there?

2. A train was hurtling down a track towards a Nun, who after attending last months Country Music Event (and drinking a few too many beers) had fallen asleep on the railway line. The train didn't have its headlights switched on; there was no moonlight and no overhead lighting. How was the driver able to stop without hitting her?
