

That Woz The Day That Woz!

Courthouse Connection

Another great weekend's entertainment at Gawler Country Music Club.

Honni's personality carried the band into a land where no band had set foot before. The magnetic forces of our beloved drummer again attracted visitors onto the dance-floor. The cool guitar work, the smiles and pleasant personalities of each artist made the day very enjoyable.

A pal of Rocky Page, a rodeo rider since 15 years of age explains how he was around at the initial setting up of the Parafield and Gawler Country Music Clubs. I'm sure we'll hear more about Ross's background.

Hey Good Lookin'

A middle aged woman had a heart attack and was taken to hospital.

While on the operating table she had a near death experience.

Seeing God she asked "Is my time up?"
God said, "No, you have another 43 years, 2 months and 8 days to live."

Upon recovery, the woman decided to stay in the hospital and have a facelift, liposuction, and a tummy tuck.

She even had someone come in and change her hair colour. Since she had so much more time to live, she figured she might as well make the most of it.

After her last operation, she was released from the hospital. While crossing the street on her way home, she was run over and killed by an ambulance.

Arriving in front of God, she demanded, "I thought you said I had another 40 years?"

Why didn't you pull me out from the path of the ambulance?"

God replied: "I didn't recognize you."

Club Outing

Gawler Country Music Club

The proposed Club Outing for Sunday 10th September 2006 to visit the Wineries of McLaren Vale has been cancelled due to lack of orders.

Country Music Donation

Bill Northcott and Radio Host Rob Edwards have jointly donated a uniquely decorated guitar to Gawler Country Music Club as a fundraising artefact for the Slim Dusty Foundation.

Thanks guys for your kind gesture.

My Dad Is A Father

A little boy got on the bus, sat next to a man reading a book on Lawn Bowls, and noticed he had his collar on backwards.
The little boy asked why he wore his collar that way.
The man, who was a priest, said, "I am a Father."

The little boy replied, "My Daddy doesn't wear his collar like that."
The priest looked up from his book and answered, "I am the Father of many."
The boy said, "My Dad has 4 boys, 4 girls and two grandchildren and he doesn't wear his collar that way."
The priest, getting impatient, said, "I am the Father of hundreds" and went back to reading his book.
The little boy sat quietly thinking for a while, then leaned over and said,

"Maybe you should wear your pants backwards instead of your collar."
