Kym's Ultimate Talent!

The recent 2012 Ultimate Country Music Talent Quest hosted by Gawler Country Music Club has set a new benchmark for aspiring Country Music stars.

The ambitious and talented 28 competitors made a total of 51 hopeful challenges to achieve their dream of winning a professional recording contract, and a positive pathway to a rewarding career in the music industry.

The 2012 Ultimate Gawler Country Music Club winner was

... Kym Wilson...

A few days later Kym said 'I am still on a "high" from the weekend!'

Kym Wilson is known as the "Little Girl with the Big Voice".

With more than 15 years of experience on stage Kym has developed a long list of accomplishments including qualifying as a finalist at the South Australian Champions of Champions from 1998 through to 2003; and she was also a finalist at the Victorian Champion of Champions back in 1999, 2001 and 2002.

After taking a few years break from the Country Music scene, Kym is certainly making a very noticeable comeback!

Most recently Kym has taking out 1st place in Female Vocal winning the Frank Harding Memorial Award of Excellence at the Riverland Country Music Festival 2012. In August Kym was also walking away as an award winner for Female Vocal, Senior Gospel.

Now as the deserving Overall Winner of the Gawler Country Music Club's 2012 Ultimate Country Music Talent Quest, Kym will benefit from the $1000 Record Deal with Red Brick Music. Kym is now eligible to compete yet again at the South Australian Champions of Champions in November 2012.

Kym's Ultimate Talent award and recording contract was made possible by the initiative and hard work of the Club and Committee Members of Gawler Country Music Club Inc. and their Event Sponsors... Trophies, prizes, awards, opportunity and recognition were all provided by Gawler Country Music Club without government assistance.

Well done and thanks to everyone involved for making this event one to be remembered in the History of Country Music. Thank you to all Contestants for having the courage and motivation to participate in our 2012 Ultimate Country Music Talent Quest Championship.

Congratulations to Kym Wilson, and to all Trophy and Prize Winners.
