Looking for 'Mr. Right'

Followers of Country Music here in South Australia are sure to have heard mention of well known guitarist Greg Bunnett.

Greg who was lead guitarist for the recently disbanded 'Ironbark' is now a member of the newly formed band 'Claypan'.

'Claypan' is the brainchild of Tracey Rains who fronts the band as vocalist with Greg on guitar, Rod Porter on drums and Rod Dawson playing bass.

Greg says he is looking forward to appearing with the new line-up at our ever popular local Country Music Clubs here in S.A. and further afield.

Greg and Tracey who are both first class entertainers recently achieved third place at Tamworth's CCMA talent quest in Songwriting with their song... 'Looking for Mr. Right'.

Multi award winner Greg has been playing in Country Bands pretty much non-stop since 1982.

He has played gigs with artist such as Lee Kernaghan, Adam Harvey and the late Barry Thornton.

Greg's musical career began at the age of ten when his main influences were rock and blues. His interest in Country Music began in the 80's.

Over the years Greg has been involved in recording 12 albums with various artists.

As a genuine provider of inspiration, motivation and encouragement, Greg has helped and taught many young musicians.

He has also often taken on the role of Judge and Official at many Music Competitions. However, he had to stop judging as he had personally tutored so many of the contestants. 'Well....fairs fair!'

Greg is identified by those who know him not just as a great guitarist, but as a man who has gained respect and admiration for his contribution to music in South Australia.

His compassion for people and the country life have resulted in him writing in excess of 20 great songs.

Greg is a modest man with many talents who... like so many others... works quietly behind the scenes, not trying to attract attention, not looking for recognition or fame.

Where is Mr. Right?

One may wonder about the title of the song 'Looking for Mr. Right' written by Greg and Tracey.

You see... Greg is married to Sue and Tracey is married to Chris...

However...Based on the evidence! When it comes to selecting a guitarist to play in a new band... (such as 'Claypan'...) many would agree that Greg is indeed... Mr. Right?

But...If you come across another 'Mr Right' please let Greg and Tracey know, 'cos he must be a really special guy.

If you wish more information on 'Claypan' and 'Looking for Mr. Right' catch up with Greg when their new band appears at Munno Para Bowling Club on Sunday 4th May, when 'Claypan' will be assisting in raising funds for the Royal Society for the Blind. Well done Greg.....
