Riverbush Cottages

Hi Folks

First of all I would like to thank Raelz for the nice article she put in the last news letter relating to Us Blokes.

For the Riverbush Cottage weekend on the 26th to the 28th of June I have had to book an extra cottage, to avoid having to use the sofa beds situated in the lounge room. Occupants wouldn't be able to go to bed until everyone else had exited the area.

As a result the total cost has risen slightly to $30.00 per night per head, making it $60.00 per head for two nights. (There may be a further slight reduction)

I am taking deposits from all those who have put their name down so I can confirm your bed for the weekend.

The March Music Workshop was well attended again with 40 people turning and they all seemed to enjoy themselves.

There will a short meeting at the next Music Workshop. If you have any ideas on how to improve the way things are done please feel free to speak.

Also, if you have any complaints or problems come and speak to one of the Coordinators and we will do our best to sort it out in a professional manner.

I was recently asked at the Workshop if it is acceptable to display flyers for another club.

The answer to that is... We don't have a problem with advertising clubs and events as long as the people responsible show the common courtesy of asking first.

Our Trip To Victor

About the middle of January our son Rodney asked if we would be interested in going away for the Australia Day Weekend in our caravan... maybe to the river.

Having been at the river on a few occasions when it was quite hot. A little apprehensive about doing so again, I decided to ring the Victor Harbour Caravan Park to see if they had any sites left.

To my surprise they did, so after a quick discussion with Graeme, Rodney and our daughter-in-law Wendy about how it would be much cooler down there if the weather got too hot.

I booked us a site, deciding that Graeme and I would stay an extra few days.

Well.....It turns out that we were at Victor when Adelaide recorded their hottest day in 70 years!!

It was even hotter down there than at home. So much for me thinking it would be cooler down the beach.

On the brighter side we had a lovely weekend with Wendy & Rodney before the really hot weather set in on the Tuesday.

I have decide not to tell you about the flat tyre we had on the way; or about the fact that we had to come home two day's early because we all had heat stress, or you will all think I am a whinger.

So 'Hi' to all our Country Music friends, hope our little story puts a smile on your faces.

By the way... did I mention there was a cool change down there the night we came home?

Kind Regards

Jeanette & Graeme Mold
