Travellin' Man

Welsh born singer-songwriter Twyce Daily sailed into South Australia as a teenager. He tried his hand at carpentry and other timber trades before an injury prompted a career change.

His loss of fingertips was not a barrier to singing, writing and filming. He travelled the outback as a documentary and filmmaker. It was there he captured some of the images that adorn his creative video clips.

His video for Gypsy Heart was inspired by a documentary on the legendary Slim Dusty who made a movie in Alice Springs in the eighties, showing the Todd river running dry.
