

That Woz the Day That Woz! 18th March 2012 (Correct Year!)

Well, It seems that my biological clock is still in 2011 and needs some fine adjustment. A new battery might do the trick. Yes our March 2012 show sure was a winner with City Cowboys putting on a great show.

Their new bass man may look familiar to some fans. Doc Sheedy has worked with many country and rock bands for the past 40 years. His bass style and vocal ability fits in well with the rest of the guys. Doc has played with The Renegades, Both Barrels and Rock and Roll bands Fullhouse, Shamrock, Soul Commitments and Rockn' Fellas. Thanks City Cowboys for some good music that had the dance floor filled for the whole show.

Walk up artists Peter Tomlinson and Kimmy Shalders added a change of pace and it was great to see Peter back on board again. Kimmy's enthusiastic performance was a winner!

How Things Have Changed Since 1960

Someone asked me the other day, 'What was your favourite 'fast food' when you were growing up?'

'We didn't have fast food when I was growing up,' I informed him.

'All the food was slow.'

'C'mon, seriously... Where did you eat?'

'It was a place called home,' I explained. !

'Mum cooked every day and when Dad got home from work, we sat down together at the dining room table, and if I didn't like what she put on my plate, I was allowed to sit there until I did like it.'

Most parents NEVER owned their own house or a car, set foot on a golf course, or had a credit card.

Parents never drove THEIR CHILDREN to school... I had a bicycle that weighed probably 50 pounds, and only had one speed (slow).

We didn't have a television in our house until I was 10.

It was, of course, black and white, and the station went off the air at 10 PM, after playing the national anthem and a pilogue.

Pizzas were not delivered to our home... But milk was.

All newspapers were delivered by boys. There were no movie ratings because all movies were responsibly produced for everyone to enjoy viewing, without profanity, violence or anything offensive.

Growing up isn't what it used to be, is it? Would you agree?

Crystals Crèche

Committee Member Crystal has a genuine interest in Country Music, however, her interest goes beyond listening to the artists playing music on stage.

If you provide a group of children and a few story books, Crystal is in her element.

She'll soon be giving our young country fans tips on singing country songs and playing guitar.

Could these young'ns be our Country Stars of the future? Ask Crystal!

Dot's Spot Happy Birthday!

Patient: How much to extract wisdom teeth?

Dentist: $500.

Patient: That's ridiculous! Isn't there something cheaper?

Dentist: I can cut the price in half, if we don't use anesthetic.

Patient: Nope. That's still way too much.

Dentist: OK. If I just rip them out with pliers, the price is $50.

Patient: That's more like it.
Book my husband for next Monday.

90 Years Young

Craig Haskard was sitting tapping his fingers to the sound of the music at our recent show. He's been a club member for quite a number of years, but he let his membership slip by last year.

However Craig is back! He has rejoined Gawler CMC.
