

That Woz the Day That Woz!

20th July 2008

What a great turnout for the return of the band Heartland. A steady trickle of new and old faces appeared to fill the venue to almost full capacity. Welcome aboard to our new club members. Bring your friends along with you to the next show. It'll be a good one too.

Heartland put on a great show.

Their unique line up with pedal steel and keyboards provided an excellent yet 'different sound'.

Playing songs of Adam Harvey to Golden Oldies including Singin' the Blues. (Released October 1956 by Guy Mitchell... That was 42 years ago!)

Walk-ups included Steve Tripodi, Peter Tomlinson, Sugar 'n' Spice.... Everyone's favourite Rael's and Frank McCoy.

Steve's performance was his best ever. Keep those Country songs comin' Steve! Peter presented himself immaculately as usual, displaying his years of experience as a seasoned performer. The voices of Sugar 'n' Spice are maturing with experience. 'A great performance girls. Develop your harmonies and you will become big time!' Rael's performance of 'How Many' blew away the emotional cobwebs with her strong voice and the excellent musical backing of Heartland. Frank's original Poetic Performance contained serious to fun lyrics. A different kind of artist who appealed to the audience.

'Thanks to you all for a great show.'

Gawler Country Music AGM

Young Artist Sponsorship

Our club has now become a sponsor of Eliza who is putting new found energy into her performance. Eliza was acknowledged at the SACCM Champion of Champions achieving a position in the top 3 of the Under 12's Section.

Sources say Eliza moved around so much as she sang that people were waiting for her to fall of the stage. The crowd loved Eliza's singing and choice of country songs and yes.... her smile from ear to ear.

Grandma said 'I can't stop thinking about Eliza and the way she moved around. I've never seen her move like that before.' Grandma is still laughing!

Eliza is now learning more new songs for the Mildura Talent Quest.

Amos Morris

Amos has been performing at a string of engagements throughout July with The 2008 Slim Dusty Family Reunion Tour.

Amos appears at Gawler Country Music Club on Sunday 21st September.
