‘Beccy Comes to Town’

October sure is a lucky month in Beccy Cole’s ‘Pre-Loved’ diary! About to return to her home ground, globetrotting Becky says...

“I am so looking forward to my first tour of SA in many years with my best buddy Adam Harvey for some fun and frivolity”

Besides her recordings, Beccy Cole is known for her amazing live shows and for providing the best in entertainment. As an accomplished comedienne, Beccy can have an audience roaring with laughter at her wicked brand of humour.

Beccy has won 7 Golden Guitars and 2 Entertainer of the Year awards. Add her 3 Gold records... and one begins to realize that you must attend at least one of Beccy’s concerts here in SA.

Beccy penned her heartfelt and honest song Poster Girl; inspired by her trip to the Middle East to Entertain Australian troops. This lovely emotional song took out a remarkable three Golden Guitars. Through tears, she sang "Poster Girl" as Diggers marched the MCG on ANZAC day 2007 in front of an audience of 100,000.

Since beginning her singing career as a teenager, singing with her Mum’s... Carole Sturtzel’s band... ‘Wild Oats’; Beccy has toured with Willie Nelson, Kenny Rogers, Tom T Hall, The Bellamy Brothers, Glenn Campbell and Don McClean.

Having enjoying three year touring and playing to sell-out crowds with Gina Jeffreys and Sara Storer as “The Songbirds,”

... Beccy has now gone on to release her own new album ‘Pre-Loved’ ... a collection of pre recorded songs that are, as she puts it, ‘Songs that I sang along with; cried my eyes out to; took lessons from and wished I’d written’.

‘Pre-Loved’ Beccy’s New Album is Available Now!
 Give it a whirl!
