

That Woz the Day That Woz!

21st November 2010

Heartland provided a very entertaining 4 hours of music, and the dance floor was full for the entire event.

Guest Artist Peter Tomlinson, with walk ups Taylor Pfeiffer, Roger Howard and Crystal Anoniazzi added variety to the well organised occasion.

Well done everyone!

Our club is still attracting new members, and once again we are about to reach record membership numbers. Welcome aboard folks!

The clubroom renovations should be completed before our next event.

So tell you friends all about the Venue with the Menu...

Smoky Dawson's wife Dot Passes Away

THE wife of Australian country singing legend Smoky Dawson passed away in the final days of October 2010 at the age of 104.

Dot Dawson - one of the first women broadcasters who worked for the ABC during the Second World War - died at her Sydney nursing home on Wednesday 27th October.

She and her husband combined on many successful radio programs over the decades, from the Smoky Dawson syndicated radio show in the 1940s to regular instalments on Sydney's North Shore community radio station FM99.3 since the early 1980s.

When Dot turned 100 in 2006, FM99.3 declared a Dot Dawson Day, broadcasting excerpts of her programs and interviews.

She met her husband Smoky in 1939. They had no children.

Smoky, Australia's first singing cowboy - died in February 2008.

What Is 'Authentic Country Music'?

Authenticity in performance has a completely different meaning than authenticity with reference to objects. Authenticating a document or work of art involves finding whether it is the original object. However, if you are an authentic performer, let's say; and I copy your look, lyric, or style, I am to that degree imitating and not authentic.

Thus what is taken to be authentic (Country Music) is continually changing. Will Country Music survive this century? Is Authentic Country Music fading with the passing away of the country artists of yesteryears? i.e. Loretta Lynn, George Jones, Johnny Cash, and Merle Haggard? It could be; but not necessarily. Perhaps 'Authenticity' is a renewable resource... Perhaps Country Music's survival and growth in the 21st century needs some new faces at the helm!
