

Compass Brothers In Shock!

Compass Brothers Records have announced a new partnership with Shock Entertainment.

The deal marks an exclusive arrangement whereby Shock Entertainment will sell and distribute Compass Brothers Records, music & DVD releases.

In addition to this Shock Entertainment will represent Compass Brothers Records online catalogue internationally.

Compass Bros Records is Australia's premier country music label with a reputation for developing exceptional Australian talent.

Since its inception in 2000 the label has built an impressive roster that includes multi platinum selling

Adam Brand, The Sunny Cowgirls, James Blundell, Anne Kirkpatrick, Peter Denahy, Kirsty Lee Akers, Rob Black, Brendon Walmsley, Jim Haynes and the 2008 Toyota Star Maker winner Talia Wittmann.

In Compass Bros Record's short history its artists have collected 21 CMAA Country Music Awards of Australia. They were voted Record Company of the Year by the CMAA membership in 2003, 2005, 2006 and 2007.

Frank Honoured

Frank Ifield was recently presented with the Living Legend Award at the Kempsey (NSW) Country Music Festival.

The award is presented annually to a living legend of Australian Country Music.

Owen Blundell performed Frank's biggest hit I Remember You at the presentation (Frank is unable to sing following an operation after he suffered pneumonia and collapsed lungs several years ago).

The Macleay Argus (Kempsey's local newspaper) reported this year's Kempsey Festival could be the last as the entire organising committee was set to quit following frustrations with red tape while trying to organise events.

NU COUNTRY TV LIVE ON THE WEB

The good news for Country Music Fans with home computers!

Nu Country TV can now be viewed online here and overseas.

Selected episodes of the show are now available online at the web page of the mother-ship C31.

That's a bonus for international artists touring Australia.
