

No Boundaries

Travis Collins knows No Boundaries when it comes to gaining national and international recognition.

Travis is rapidly becoming one of Australia's most exciting new talents. The handsome young contemporary country performer is being enthusiastically embraced by a new generation of young country fans as well as lovers of great country music in general.

In 2004 he won the Toyota Star Maker Quest following in the footsteps of Keith Urban, Lee Kernaghan, Gina Jeffreys and James Blundell.

After winning Starmaker, Travis released his first album, Start the Car.

Collins released his album No Boundaries on August last year

It features 12 new recordings including the first single 'Yeah She Does' - a song co-written by Keith Urban.

Two old buddies

Nathaniel O'Brien and Travis.

Travis is all set for his April appearances with Beccy Cole prior to his UK tour in July.

From Tamworth to Gawler Country Music Club

On Saturday 19th January Adelaide singer Talia Wittman won the prestigious Tamworth Toyota Starmaker talent search.

The competition has previously been won by stars such as Keith Urban, James Blundell, Gina Jeffreys, Lee Kernaghan and fellow South Australian Becky Cole.

Talia, 23 started playing guitar when she was 12, said she was "blown away".

"It's amazing, I can't believe I won. I have big shoes to fill," she said. Her prize includes a recording contract, an album, national distribution and promotion and a music video.

Talia who graduated from the Australian College of Country Music last year, was previously rejected by Australian Idol judges, who said she was "not really what we're looking for".

Don't miss Talia at our next Gawler Country Music Club show.
