South Australia Rejected by Santa!

I guess many of us SA Country Music Fans and Artists sent out letters to Santa. I hope you did? My letter asking for a million dollars wasn't returned so I'm sure Santa received it! And Australia post is so reliable these days.

Last year Taylor Swift the young American country singer/songwriter gave $4 million to the Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum to create an exhibit and classroom space dedicated to teaching children about music.

The Taylor Swift Education Centre will open in 2014 and is part of the Nashville museum's overall expansion project. The Swift Centre will have its own entrance leading to 7,500 square feet of exhibition and classroom space, divided over two stories.

Taylor says she very much wants to be involved in an advisory capacity.

Do we have anyone any Taylors in South Australia? Is there anyone out there with dollars who's in touch with Country Music?

If Santa won't assist us in developing opportunity for our younger generation, who will?

C'mon Santa! Give us a fair go!

If you can't drop us a line with some assistance, you will be disappointing so many people of all ages. They may even begin to think that there is no Santa!

It is a fact that organising Country Music events; producing monthly newsletters, and providing a good venue with food and drink facilities costs money and many hours of work. For our Committee, there are good times and not so good times...However, Gawler Country Music Club will endeavour to provide you with the best of the best. Have a lovely year!

Just a Thought From Bill Northcott!

Elderly Drivers Don't Need a Driving Licence

A Gawler man was sitting on his lawn sunning himself while reading his Gawler Country Music Club Newsletter, when he was startled by a late model Volvo car crashing through his garden fence and coming to rest on his lawn.

He helped the elderly driver out and sat her on a garden chair.

"My goodness" he exclaimed, "you are very old to still be driving!"

"Yes" she replied, "I am old enough that I DONT NEED a license anymore."

The last time I went to my doctor he examined me, and asked if I had a driver's license.

I told him yes and handed it to him.

He took scissors out of a drawer, cut the license into pieces and threw them in the wastebasket."

"YOU WON'T BE NEEDING THIS ANYMORE," he said.

"So I thanked him and left."

A Note from FFFred

Hi Folks

Well the last Gawler Country Music Workshop for the year is done and dusted. We had a great turnout with everyone bringing a plate or two to share and no one would have gone away still hungry.

It was excellent to see some new faces including Warren Johncock from Midnight Special. He was happy to pass on his years of expertise to anybody willing to listen.

The Most Outstanding Achiever Award was won by a gentleman who used to be very shy and reluctant to join in with the performers on stage; but this year has made a huge improvement and even found himself playing up front with the other musicians. The person in focus is no other than Bass Player Chris Parks. Well done and thoroughly deserved.

I would like to finish by saying a big Thank You to all who helped in the kitchen, my subcommittee and everybody who attended throughout 2012.
