Editors Note

Hi Folks

Lately we've had a good deal of rain; the temperature is becoming colder, some people have been shivering with flu, (hopefully not the swine variety!) and I can't find my long-johns!

However, a local radio celebrity who shall remain anonymous has advised me that he's been known to wear flannel PJ's under his track-- suit to keep warm! (Makes a change from his Superman costume! Oops!)

Talking of radio; it's great to hear Country Brekky's Wally Sparrow playing a song track from 11 year old Eliza's new Country CD 'Uniquely Australian.'

It goes to show that there are young Country artists out there and thoughtful supportive people willing to promote and assist them.

The South Australian Council for Country Music (SACCM) is also taking an even more active approach in encouraging and assisting youngsters to participate.

Your monthly Gawler CMC Newsletter now features on pages 6 and 7, Young artist alongside established supportive artists. Thanks Folks for your encouragement!

Local Recording Studios...Terry Pickles of Silkwood Studios and Anthony Stewart of Red Brick Music are also available for advice on recording.

Well we've travelled from the subject of long-johns to recording studios in a matter of a few words....

If you've had a personal experience with either of these topics...please contact your eagerly awaiting optimist.....

G'Day Members & Friends

What a great weekend of music. Munno Para Bowling & Recreation Club held a Saturday Night Rock N Roll show with the Cruisers. What a great night it was!

Then WILDCARD appeared at our Sunday show...what a fantastic show they put together.

Our full capacity crowd was obviously ready to enjoy the day. Guest artist Graeme Hugo never lets his fans down.

We had a surprise guest artist in Big Deano who also chipped in with some great songs.

With all this talent on stage at the same time the dance floor was full all day with everyone enjoying themselves.

It was only the second time that I can remember we have had to put the Full House sign out.

Thanks Guys and a Girl for a fantastic weekend.

Well onto our July show. We have the Limestone Balladeers; this is another good one not to be missed. So be early. Doors open at 10.30am first in best seated. Don't forget our AGM is on 16th August 10a.m. start. Nominations are open for all positions on the committee. Give it some thought. New people means new ideas.

Nomination forms are available in our Newsletters Back Page. So until our July Show.

Keep It Country
Regards
