

City Life for Taylor Report from Club President

Taylor Pfeiffer's Mother reports on Taylor's move to the city.

'Yes great idea!' and she has written a song about it.

Taylor loves her school in Adelaide but going by the lyrics in her song....she doesn't like city life.

But as usual Taylor hasn't changed; she is still the very happy Banjo Girl.

Dear Gawler Country Music Club Members

At a recent meeting between the City of Playford Council and an elected Gawler Country Music Club sub-committee, we were informed that the council will be relocating Bowling to the new Sporting Hub in Elizabeth.

Alternative sites will also be available in our local area for other community organisations including Gawler Country Music Club.

The Council has made it very clear that Gawler Country Music Club will not be left out of their community plans; and development planning is still in progress. We will keep our members up to date with progress via our newsletter.

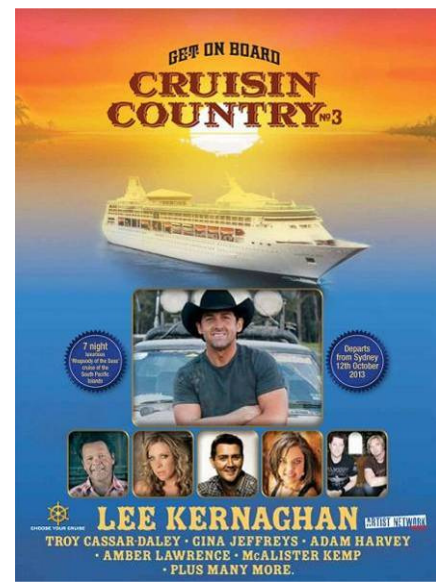

The rumours about our club closing down are totally unfounded, and we ask our Club Members to accept only written information from your Gawler Country Music Club committee. Our club is strong and we will be here for a long time yet.

We also have an effective newsletter to provide club members with up-to-date information. Stay tuned for accurate updates.

We ask that our club members advise others NOT TO TAKE NOTICE OF ANY GOSSIP, stories or rumours in relation to Gawler Country Club Music Club.

Kind Regards to all
Keith Warren
President G.C.M.C.
