@ The Venue with the Menu!

Sorry to say I (Les) couldn't attend this event due to another commitment, however Tina has put a few words together for you.

On entering the Gawler Country Music Club last Sunday, I was a bit worried "No band" the stage was almost empty. I had invited 8 friends along to see the show. I explained to the girls I hadn't seen The Hoffmans before; so I wasn't sure what they were like.

Margaret said "don't worry if they are no good we can go for coffee." No need to worry; it was one of the best shows I have ever seen. We danced, laughed, sang along to most of their songs and also cried.

At one stage you could have heard a pin drop. What a talented couple they are; both playing their guitars and singing. Their harmonies were so good.

We were still talking about the show on Monday as we walked through the Adelaide hills with our Salisbury Ramblers walking group.

Thank you to The Hoffmans and Thank you to Keith for such a great show.

Dot's Spot!

Oh, I Wish I'd Looked After Me Tits

By Pam Ayres

Oh, I wish I'd looked after me dear old knockers,
Not flashed them to boys behind the school lockers,
Or let them get fondled by randy old dockers,
Oh, I wish I'd looked after me tits.
'Cos now I'm much older and gravity's winning,
It's Nature's revenge for all that sinning,
And those dirty memories are rapidly dimming,
Oh, I wish I'd looked after me tits.

'Cos tits can be such troublesome things
When they no longer bounce, but dangle and swing,
And although they go well with my Bingo wings,
I wish I'd looked after me tits.

When they're both long enough to tie up in a bow,
When it's not the sweet chariot that swings low,
When they're less of a friend and more of a foe,
Then I wish I'd looked after me tits.

When I was young I got whistles and hoots,
From the men on the site to the men in the suits,
Now me nipples get stuck in the zips on me boots,
Oh, I wish I'd looked after me tits.

When I was younger I rode bikes and scooters,
Cruising around with my favourite suitors.
Now the wheels get entangled with my dangling hooters,
I wish I'd looked after me tits.

When they follow behind and get trapped in the door,
When they're less in the air and more near the floor,
When people see less of them rather than more,
Oh, I wish I'd looked after me tits.

FINISHED

No English dictionary has been able to adequately explain the difference between COMPLETE and FINISHED. However, in a recent linguistic conference held in London, England, and attended by some of the best linguists in the world: Samsundar Balgobin, a Guyanese, was the clear winner.

His final challenge was this: Some say there is no difference between COMPLETE and FINISHED. Please explain the difference between COMPLETE and FINISHED in a way that is easy to understand.

Here is his astute answer: "When you marry the right woman, you are COMPLETE. But, when you marry the wrong woman, you are FINISHED. And when the right one catches you with the wrong one, you are COMPLETELY FINISHED!"
