

That Woz the Day That Woz!

Graeme Hugo & Ironbark played at both of our club's May events; the Saturday Cabaret and the monthly Sunday Show.

Attracting a good turnout as usual it was a pleasure to see some new, (but familiar) faces on stage.

The dance floor was full for the duration of each show. Tracey Rains was received a standing ovation for her renditions of How Great though Art and Amazing Grace. The Buddy Holly song True Love Ways also raised an emotional response from listeners.

Included in Graeme's repertoire was 'Don't Rock the Juke Box' but he and Ironbark sure had the dancers at Gawler Country Music Club... rockin' all day and all night long. Thanks Graeme for a great show.

Walk Up Artists

Thanks also to walkup artists Eric, Val & Graeme, George, Nathaniel, and Kerry. You all added to an excellent day's entertainment.

'Danny's Legacy'

'As the years roll by' we reflect upon our life experiences... and... many of our thoughts remaining with us... never to be shared with others.

However, as we all know, many successful songwriters openly tell the world about their life, their emotions and their experiences through music and song.

A perfect example of a songwriter whose songs are worthy of praise... and a Number 1 Spot in the music charts, is SA's Danny Hooper with his latest C.D. ... 'The Legacy'.

'It was just a dream in my dad's heart...
A young man not more than 23...
Who'd have known that old guitar
Would someday become a legacy''

These words are from the title track on Danny Hooper's debut album 'The Legacy'.

Danny was raised on music out on a station in the north of South Australia where his whole family would sit around the kitchen table and sing together.

The legacy of music was born and handed down to Danny as a young lad by his father Kingsley who played an old guitar.

It is thanks to this experience that in 2005 Danny picked up three prizes at the Australian Songwriters Association (ASA) Awards.

His song, 'Dreamland', became the winner of the Spirit of Australia category. He received finalist status in the Country and Contemporary Ballad sections with his single 'The Legacy', and 'I Believe In You'.

Following on from that, his New Album, 'The Legacy' is now available to the public. The CD, which includes 12 of Danny's own songs, was produced by the legendary Rod McCormack with some of the country's best musicians.

Danny is all fired up about this album. Look out for 'The Legacy'... It's a ripper!
