'Good Girls...
...Go to Heaven'

If you've been listening to Country Music on radio lately it's possible you've heard Amber Lawrence singing "Good Girls".

If you haven't heard Amber singing this song then give your favourite Radio Hosts a call, 'Cos it's real good!

Amber's Country Music career is truly destined for a 'Pot of Gold'! Gold Guitars, gold discs, gold cowgirl boots and all other things gold.

The Midas Touch is sure to materialise for this talented young Aussie singer/songwriter.

Amber's success and talent is the result of four years of continuously touring, writing and perfecting. Her remarkable skills with pen and guitar have lead to her amazing debut album 'The Mile' produced by Rod and Jeff McCormack.

All songs on her new album are written or co-written by Amber.

'Good Girls' is the third track on 'The Mile' album released in March 2008. An upbeat, tongue in cheek tune about one's expectations of being the good girl or the bad girl or whatever people judge girls to be.

In addition to her personal performances Amber has teamed up with country artists Kirsty Lee Akers, Dianna Corcoran and Aleyce Simmonds and has hit the road touring with girl group 'Chic Frontier'.

Their showcase performance states 'Country music is well and truly alive here in Australia.'

Although she has a busy schedule Amber somehow has found time to visit East Timor with The McClymonts to play for the troops.

"It was an absolute honour to be asked to sing for our troops. It certainly made me aware of how tough their job is and how lucky we are to live in Australia".

For the remainder of 2008 Amber will continue to tour Australia in addition to writing and recording her 2nd album to be released early 2009.

Mixing with the likes of Beccy Cole, John Williamson,

Amber Lawrence

Kasey Chambers, Troy Cassar-Daley and Melinda Schneider has helped Amber to further enrich her ability to connect with audiences.

Proudly sponsored by Maton Guitars... Amber's "Good Girls" is a lively, sassy song.

And of course... Amber recons she is a 'Good Girl'.

'I wrote Good Girls because I have a bunch of girlfriends who seem to lead much calmer and more sane lives than I do.

One night after chatting with one of my best friends, I had a think about why I keep getting into trouble and I thought it's because I just can't behave myself for long enough.

Don't get me wrong, I don't see myself as a 'bad girl', but things like forgetting birthday's, leaving things in a mess, saying dumb things and not being able to cook, make me think I have a quite few things to learn...'

Amber has had offers to tour with artists including Adam Harvey, James Blundell, Travis Collins and Jim Haynes.

Read more about Amber and listen to her songs on.... www.amberlawrence.com.au/album.htm

We hope to see you down our way soon Amber. Best wishes from Gawler Country Music Club and... 'BGood!'
