Tim Tours Down Under

American country superstar Tim McGraw will tour Australia for the first time in September.

Although only playing the three east coast capital cities, he represents the biggest name in country music to grace our shores for many years.

In America, his tours regularly outsell major pop acts like Madonna and The Rolling Stones.

Tim has released 16 albums (his latest 2009's Southern Voice), has sold more than 40 million units and landed 31 singles at number one in America including his latest, the title track to his current album.

He has taken home 50 Awards including three Grammys and featured in seven films – he plays Sandra Bullock's husband in the Academy Award-nominated "The Blind Side" and has just finished filming "Love Don't Let Me Down" with co-stars like Gwyneth Paltrow.

He will tour with his band the Dancehall Doctors and wife Faith Hill will also be part of the Australian concerts.

"Tim is a true superstar and many of his Aussie fans have been waiting almost two decades to see him," said Rob Potts.

He plays the Brisbane Entertainment Centre on Thursday September 16, Melbourne's Rod Laver Arena on Sunday the 19th and Sydney's Acer Arena on Tuesday 21st. Tickets are on sale now at ticketek.com.au Source: www.countrymusicbulletin.com.au/

Late News!

Women Who Know Their Place

Journalist Barbara Walters wrote a story on Gender Roles in Kabul, Afghanistan, several years before the Afghan conflict. She noted that women customarily walked five paces behind their husbands.

She recently returned to Kabul and observed that women still walk behind their husbands. Despite the overthrow of the oppressive Taliban regime, the women now seem to, and are happy to, maintain the old custom.

Ms. Walters approached one of the Afghani women and asked, "Why do you now seem happy with an old custom that you once tried so desperately to change?"

The woman looked Ms. Walters straight in the eyes, and without hesitation said, "Land Mines."

Religious Educashun

The children were lined up in the cafeteria of a Catholic elementary school for lunch.

At the head of the table was a large pile of apples. The nun made a note, and posted it on the apple tray:

'Take only ONE. God is watching.'

Moving further along the lunch line, at the other end of the table was a large pile of chocolate chip cookies.

A child had written a note, 'Take all you want... God is watching the apples...'

The Tale of an Ex Smoker

With the price of cigarettes on the rise, people will do anything to preserve life's pleasures.

Two old ladies were waiting for a bus in Gawler and one of them was smoking a cigarette. It started to rain, so the old lady reached into her purse, took out a condom, cut off the tip and slipped it over her cigarette and continued to smoke.

Her friend saw this and said, "Hey that's a good idea! But, what is that thing you put over your cigarette?"

The other old lady said, "It's a condom."

"A condom? Where do you get those?"

The lady with the cigarette told her friend that you could purchase condoms at the local pharmacy.

When the two ladies arrived in Elizabeth, the old lady with all the questions went into the shopping centre pharmacy and asked the pharmacist if he sold condoms. The pharmacist said yes, but looked a little surprised that this old woman was interested in condoms, so he asked her, "What size do you want?"

The old lady thought for a minute and said, "One that will fit a Camel."

Hence, the packaging and labelling system of cigarettes was changed... all thanks to that lady from Gawler...
