Country Music Forever!

Over recent years Country Music enthusiasts have discussed, debated and expressed their opinions on their definition of 'What constitutes Country Music?'

Culture, environmental influences, personal experience and age may each play a part in shaping our points of view and our taste and preferences for music.

Whether we prefer traditional American Style Country Music or the Country Music produced in Australia, Asia, Europe, Africa or Antarctica... is purely subjective, and differs from person to person.

Have you ever been involved in a conversation when the topic is a newly released album by a well known artist? You maybe first heard it on your favourite radio station....

Hey I love that song. The lyrics are so good....
I think the song is too repetitive.....

The singer has a great voice
Yeah! Well if you like the exaggerated American accent.....

I think she is a terrific singer....
Well! It would be nice to hear her singing something with a decent melody. All of her songs sound the same...

These comments and different points of view are likely to be expressed for all eternity. That's because we are human!

However, taking a look at Country Music from a different perspective....

Because of its relatively uncomplicated musical structure Country Music allows us ordinary ageing and young people to participate together in developing interests and skills. It (Country Music) encourages communication, a common interest and personal development.

If you have participated in musical activities you will know that music also involves commitment, discipline, motivation, overcoming barriers and difficulties. It helps young individuals and us oldies to develop and widen our personal and social horizons.

Our Young Country Musicians and Singers deserve recognition for what they strive to achieve. Hours of practice, lessons, parental expenses, tantrums, conflict and heartbreaks are all hidden behind those smiling faces you see on stage.

Entering a Talent Quest is generally a nerve wracking experience for almost everyone who plucks up the courage.

It is for this reason Gawler Country Music Club wishes to encourage artists (See Centre Pages.) to continue in their quest to gain recognition as performers; and to benefit from the experience of entertaining others.
Well done to each and every one of you!

Gawler Country Music Club wish to say thank you to you all for keeping Country Music alive in Australia. You are all an important link in the History of Country Music...

You are the enthusiasts who will help Country Music flourish into the next generation. Please do continue.
