

That Woz the Day That Woz!

15th May 2011

Dave Williams in clinches with Patsy and Bernie.

Gawler Country Music Club certainly landed a knockout show this month.

Popular Chooka Williams decided not to put on his boxing gloves today... Finds it difficult to play his guitar... However, he put on a belter of a performance with two rounds of his repertoire. Sadly the bell sounded and he was counted out.

Phil Dunning is another example of how time and a passion cultivates quality.

Well done Phil the sparkle you displayed was knockout!

Then there was this guy Les with a saxophone. The rattle of his nerves was thankfully drowned out by the music of the Bandits.

HeyFolks, Taking that big step into the ring for the first time can be a nerve wracking experience; but with determination and commitment...just as with Lionel... Who knows what the future may hold for you.

If you have a yearning to sing or play, come along to Fred's Gawler CMC Music Workshop, or Roger's Open Mike... or put your name on the list to become a Walk-up artist at the club... !

MELODY FEDER is ENTERTAINER OF THE YEAR

Following several dramas earlier this year on how to assist local girl Melody Feder raise funds to take her to Norfolk Island in May this year...

Melody is ... THE 2011 TRANS TASMAN ENTERTAINER OF THE YEAR!

Now in its 18th year, the annual event is getting bigger and better every year. The festival is designed to showcase Australia and New Zealand's best talent.

Congratulations and Well Done Melody!

What a wonderful ringside audience turned out for Bernie and the Bandits at our May show.

They say wine matures with age; well this band has proved that years of experience and enthusiasm produce a good vintage of entertainment.

Opening with a tribute to Lionel Rose Australia's indigenous champion bantamweight boxer, Bernie's band came out fighting with Lionel's hit song, 'Thank You for Just Being You'.

Lovely harmonies, good music, a full dance floor and a great atmosphere.

Happy 80th Club Memeber Briant Hipkiss
