Oakbank Line Dancers
 Henny, Sue, Claire, Jenny, Patricia, Julie, Pip & Dot

Oakbank Line Dancers formed after answering an advert in the local paper in 1995 offering Line Dancing Classes at Oakbank. Little did we know that we would still be going strong 17 years later!

A group of total strangers from all over the Hills arrived at the hall to try this new craze 'Line Dancing'. Mostly women and the odd man tried their hand (or feet) at the line dancing craze, not realising how difficult it was to dance to country music.

Thankfully we all persevered for several weeks until finally we become more confident and coordinated and could finally put a few simple steps together to form a dance; hence "Boot Scootin Boogie" became our first dance and is still popular today.

We have our weekly classes at the Oakbank Hall with our dedicated teacher Michael who has put up with us over the years. His tolerance and persistence have eventually paid off with "his girls" dancing all over the Hills.

Once a month we enjoy dancing at various Nursing Homes throughout the Hills hoping to put a smile on the faces of the oldies and brighten their day, and we also enjoy having a chat and a cuppa with them after.

We have been asked to do demonstrations for many fundraisers such a Cancer Council, Relay for Life, Red Cross, local shows, Christmas pageants and events throughout the Adelaide Hills.

Our main aim is to enjoy our dancing and friendship. We regularly meet socially enjoying movies, theatre, and dining out. We have now become one big family enjoying and sharing many of life's experiences together.

Little did we know 17 years ago that this was going to be one of the best decisions we had ever made – to join a dance class. Not only for the exercise but for the invaluable lifelong friendships; the fun; the laughter and the tears we have shared along the way.

Oakbank Line Dancers (O.L.D.) meet every Tuesday at Oakbank Soldiers Memorial Hall
 Beginners 12.00pm – 1.00pm Intermediate 1.00pm – 3.00pm Phone: Michael 8381 7150

Thanks to Dot and the Girls for a lovely story. It's a pleasure to see your smiles, your impressive coordinated outfits, and to share in the enjoyment of your dancing. Look forward to seeing you all again soon.
