Ma's Country Kitchen

Barbecued Caramel Banana Parcels

Serves 6

6 Small just ripe Bananas, thickly sliced
¼ cup firmly packed Brown Sugar
40g Butter chopped
1 tsp Vanilla Essence
2 tbs Flaked Almonds, toasted
Whipped cream to serve

Tear off 6 X 30cm square pieces of foil and place on workbench, top with 6 X30cm square baking paper.

Place bananas slices at centre of baking paper. Sprinkle evenly with sugar, dot with butter, then sprinkle with essence.

Fold baking paper over banana and roll tightly to enclose, then fold foil and roll tightly, so banana has been rolled firstly in baking paper and then in foil.

Preheat barbecue flatplate to moderately low.

Cook parcels for 4 mins or until bananas are soft and butter is melted.

Transfer parcels to serving dish.

To serve, carefully open parcel, sprinkle with almonds, serve with cream.

Enjoy!

It's a Lock Out!

When one becomes a Radio Host with Radio Adelaide on Digital Radio on line and on 101.5 FM ...

Nature often calls and one has to pay a visit to... you know where...

With security the way it is these days, some doors need a security code to get back in.

Well Uncle Fred went out OK to visit the loo, closing the door to the sound proofed studio behind him.

Of course when he returned to the studio to begin his Country Café transmission... he was locked out!

No security code!

Only a couple of minutes to go and he was in the embarrassing position of being caught with his pants up and the...door locked.

The only course of action was to shout... 'Help'.

As with all good stories, there is a happy ending.

Sir Brian Moore dressed for action...

and all prepared to meet up with

Wally's Moose Warrior!

Also well done with the Music Workshop at the Anglican Parish Church Hall in Gawler on Saturday Guys.
