

Lessons on Court Appearance

All taken from real life situations

ATTORNEY: What was the first thing your husband said to you that morning?

WITNESS: He said, 'Where am I, Cathy?'

ATTORNEY: And why did that upset you?

WITNESS: My name is Susan!

ATTORNEY: What gear were you in at the moment of the impact?

WITNESS: Gucci sweatshirt and Reeboks.

ATTORNEY: Do you know if your daughter has ever been involved in voodoo?

WITNESS: We both do.

ATTORNEY: Voodoo?

WITNESS: We do.

ATTORNEY: You do?

WITNESS: Yes, voodoo.

ATTORNEY: Now doctor; isn't it true that when a person dies in his sleep, he doesn't know about it until the next morning?

WITNESS: Did you actually pass the bar exam?

ATTORNEY: How was your first marriage terminated?

WITNESS: By death.

ATTORNEY: And by whose death was it terminated?

WITNESS: Take a guess.

ATTORNEY: Can you describe the individual?

WITNESS: He was about medium height and had a beard.

ATTORNEY: Was this a male or a female?

WITNESS: Unless the Circus was in town I'm going with male.

Golden Greats of Country Music

TROY Cassar-Daley recently had his hands full trying to hang on to the Golden Guitars he won the night before while shaking hands with fans. The singer from Grafton was a popular winner at the annual Country Music Awards in Tamworth, adding four trophies to the 21 he has amassed during his career.

These latest ones were particularly special for him, he says, because the songs that earned them were inspired by the tough times. Cassar-Daley began writing his album Home after the Queensland floods two years ago. The singer, now based in Brisbane, also has a family farm in Queensland that was affected by the floods. "Home was written on a lot of raw emotion, having seen what so many people had gone through near our farm."

Cassar-Daley won male artist of the year and album of the year for Home, while the title track was named the song of the year and another song from the album, Country Is, took single of the year. Other winners included singer Catherine Britt, female artist of the year for Charlestown Road, and siblings the McClymonts, who won top-selling album (for Two Worlds Collide) and video of the year.

Kempsey the regional town in NSW and birthplace of Slim Dusty, is on the brink of a bypass. Much planning and work has been undertaken to ensure the town continues to prosper in the aftermath of losing a significant percentage of some 20,000 vehicles that travel the Pacific Highway daily. Tourism has long been recognised as a lifeline to continue to attract visitors to this pretty valley, and the members of the local Tourism Association believe that the Slim Dusty Centre will be a key to a brighter future for business. So strong is this belief, that at their General Meeting this week, the Macleay Valley Coast Tourism Association presented a mighty $20,000 donation to the Slim Dusty Foundation.

New/Old Alphabet:

A is for apple, and B is for boat,
That used to be right, but now it won't float!
Age before beauty is what we once said,
But let's be a bit more realistic instead.

Now The Alphabet:

A's for arthritis; B's the bad back,
C's the chest pains, perhaps car-di -ac?
D is for dental decay and decline,
E is for eyesight, can't read that top line!
F is for farting and fluid retention,
G is for gut droop, which I'd rather not mention.
H high blood pressure--I'd rather it low;
I for incisions with scars you can show.
J is for joints, out of socket, won't mend,
K is for knees that crack when they bend.
L 's for libido, what happened to sex?
M is for memory, I forget what comes next.
N is neuralgia, in nerves way down low;
O is for osteo, bones that don't grow!
P for prescriptions, I have quite a few,
just give me a pill and I'll be good as new!
Q is for queasy, is it fatal or flu?
R is for reflux, one meal turns to two.
S is for sleepless nights, counting my fears,
T is for Tinnitus; bells in my ears!
U is for urinary; troubles with flow;
V for vertigo, that's 'dizzy,' you know.
W for worry, now what's going 'round?
X is for X ray, and what might be found.
Y for another year I'm left here behind,
Z is for zest I still have -- in my mind!
I've survived all the symptoms, my body's deployed,
And I'm keeping twenty-six doctors fully employed!
