Donna Boyd recently visited our neck of the woods here in South Australia and was interviewed on radio 101.5 FM by Ben Sparrow while Dad Wally was away enjoying himself at Lake Charlegrark.

Donna's singing and her songs are SO good!

Born in Sydney, Donna made a name for herself on the Sydney cabaret circuit.

At a young age she left Australia to travel overseas and to participate in globe-trotting... appearing in shows in London, New York, Orlando, Miami and Las Vegas.

Somehow she arrived in Nashville, Tennessee where her passion for country music was awakened and a new dream was born.

After returning to her Aussie homeland Donna began to compose songs.

In 2000 Donna released her first country music EP and received a 2001 Tamworth Independent Artist Recognition Award (T.I.A.R.A.) nomination for Best Female Vocalist.

In 2002 she produced her album 'All Roads' and by January 2003, she became the winner of the T.I.A.R.A. award... consolidating her position as Best Female Independent Vocalist.

While on stage in Sydney at the Galston Country Music Festival, Donna's performance caught the attention of festival patron, the legendary singer Frank Ifield.

Donna went on to win the coveted International Spur Award which ensured that her recordings would be heard throughout the U.K. and Europe.

After reaching number two on the U.K. airplay charts Donna embarked on a tour of the U.K. in 2004 - 42 dates in 61 days.

The following years presented Donna with many new opportunities and a multitude of personal achievements.

Donna Boyd

Donna's favourite artists include John Farnham, Patsy Cline, Trisha Yearwood, Vince Gill and Sting

The combination of a soaring voice, new songs, and a talented team of producers has resulted in Donna Boyd's stunning latest album

'Luckiest Girl Alive'

Luckiest Girl Alive reached
3 on the Country Tracks Top 30!
