

That Woz the Day That Woz!

Deano and Just Passin' attracted a good crowd at a time when there were many other events taking place around the traps.

Deano on vocals and rhythm guitar has played country music for more than 30 years. He is a winner of many awards for his vocals and song writing. Thanks Deano and Just Passin' for keeping the dance floor full.... time after time.

Yet again we appreciate the support of the Bowling Club and the hard work of everyone involved, and in particular thanks to our club member George Dobie who makes smooth running possible.

Walk Up Artists

'The Three Basketeers'

Thanks to walkup artists Roger, Steve and Ian Kowaldard for adding to an excellent day's entertainment.

PR Fred at Murrayland's Festival

I experienced a lovely drive through the hills approaching Tailem Bend...I prefer the back way to avoid the main road and traffic lights.

The Murrayland's Music Festival was well organised and catered for vegetarians like me. The Talent Quest had many entrants and was well worth watching. One thing is for sure... We ain't gonn'a run out of Females in the country music scene for a while so you Boys... lift your game.

Talent on the stage outside was also brilliant. I'm sorry I took no pictures, but unfortunately I don't own a camera. So I say put this one in the calendar for next year. You will certainly not be disappointed.

The main stage was outside the Tailem Bend Town Hall beside the hot food, tea and coffee stalls.

As the evening began to cool, all equipment was transferred to the hall where most of the artists performing yet again.

The Borderers finishing the show and played better than I've ever heard them play before.

If they can bottle some of there energy I want some.

Nathaniel O'Brien and big sister Tracey Rains had a great day going home with arms full of trophies.

So with that sort of talent how could you not want to go next year?

P.S. I have some hot new announcements to make about sponsorship in next month Gawler Country Music Club's Newsletter.

Most artists sang with a very good backing band especially put together for the weekend.

Visiting bands performing included The Borderers, The Rustlers, The Beggars, Wild Card, Jessie Che Band, and unfortunately... it was the farewell performance from Mallee Blue.

Benevolent Bill

Bill Northcott was presented with a Certificate of Life Membership. Thanks Bill for your support and loyalty since 1993.

I SPY

Club member Betty Robinson was spotted at Gawler Foodland winning a raffle prize... an Eater Hamper. Well done Betty!

'Once Again:' Connie's New Release

Once Again Connie Kis has delivered a silky smooth collection of songs which show her versatility, songwriting skills and appealing vocals. With a mix of tempos. She has managed to take her audience through a range of emotions in a style which 'embraces' the listeners'.
Bob Anthony Jnr: Editor Country Update

"This album is one you need in your collection; Connie has gone out of her way to cater for all styles of country music. A good album."
Jeff Dunn: Presenter Good Morning Country CBA

They say music feeds the soul, and Connie Kis Andersen's wonderful new album does just that. Connie infuses her music with perception, passion and the kind of emotional connection that makes you sit up, take notice and smile."
