Editors Note

Hi Folks

I've spent some time over the last two weeks sending emails to artists who are in their teens, twenties and thirties... asking them to provide some moral support and encouragement to young up and coming South Australian Country Music artists.

To be honest, the results are very disappointing.

Many of the artists I've contacted are established artists who have appeared at our local CM Clubs, yet there seems to be some reluctance to respond to my request to provide encouragement.

I've openly expressed my thoughts and views on why we should assist young artists in Country Music, and I've rattled a few people's opinions in the process.

Maybe I'm wrong! Maybe the lack of encouragement is not to do with the ageing supporters of Country Music as I have suggested in the past.

Is it the Entertainers? Is it the Music Industry and the associated hierarchies who are so wrapped up in their own egos and self development that they can't spare 10 minutes to provide a few words of encouragement?

The people showing most initiative appears to be the young people themselves.

What do you think?

If you are an entertainer please send me an email of support.... Also I have strong views on the use of Karaoke backing tracks at what is meant to be LIVE MUSIC!...but that's another story.

Watch out in next month's Newsletter...

President's Report

April 2009

G'Day Members and Friends.

Well April was another fantastic show with a large crowd looking for fun. Bernie & the Bandits did not disappoint, playing great music.

Then it was time for our first guest artist, Patrick Mac Mahon. What a show he put on. One of the liveliest people we have seen for quite a while. His two performances were first class entertainment. He gave our stage a good workout with his running from one end to the other doing what he does best... entertain. We have never seen anybody so happy doing our show for us.

Our second guest artist was also someone special; Wayne Nuku from New Zealand. What a voice this man has. He also did a couple of spots during the afternoon. Then came our own Kristal Collins joining Patrick on stage and performed some well rehearsed songs.

Well done to all artists... another great day. This show was our 16th Birthday.

The Birthday cake was lovingly made by club member, Carlene. Thank you Carlene we appreciate your time and effort. Flo did the honors in cutting our cake. Well done Flo.

Our May show has Top Dead Centre as the band, another group of talented musician's. We have topped this show up with guest artist's David Pearce and Freddy Bowen. Another great show coming up. So until then...

Keep It Country
Regards
