

That Woz the Day That Woz!

18th October 2009

Carole Sturtzel & Wild Oats put on a good show with the dance floor full to the gunnels... Playing a mix of Traditional Country, 60's pop and rock seemed to be the perfect combination for the audience on the day.

With a switch to Aussie songs about farming, country life, cattle and horses Alec Beckett had the audience tuning in their ears to listen intently to the words of Slim Dusty and many fellow Bush Balladeers.

This event had something for everyone.

Food for the hungry, drinks for the thirsty, dancing for the energetic, music for the ear, smiles from friends, chatting with new faces, raffles, prizes, mettwurst and an enjoyable day for all.

Apologies for those hemmed in by extra seats...The committee will be discussing this at our next monthly meeting.

A Chance Meeting

A Craigmore man is dining in a fancy restaurant in the Barossa and there is a gorgeous redhead sitting at the next table. He has been checking her out since he sat down, but lacks the nerve to talk with her.

Suddenly she sneezes, and her glass eye comes flying out of its socket toward the man.

He reflexively reaches out, grabs it out of the air, and hands it back.

'Oh my, I am so sorry,' the woman says as she pops her eye back in place.

'Let me buy your dinner to make it up to you,' she says.

They enjoy a wonderful dinner and a bottle of Barossa wine together, and afterwards they go to an Adelaide theatre followed by more drinks.

They talk, they laugh, she shares her deepest dreams and he shares his. She listens.

After paying for everything, she asks him if he would like to come to her place for a nightcap... and stay for breakfast. They had a wonderful, wonderful time.

The next morning, she cooks a gourmet meal with all the trimmings.

The Craigmore guy is amazed. Everything had been so incredible!

'You know,' he said, 'you are the perfect woman. Are you this nice to every guy you meet?'

'No,' she replies...

And says.....

'You just happened to catch my eye.'
