Ma's Country Kitchen

Supplied by our sponsors... Kalleske's Meats... Mettwurst is up for grabs at each of our monthly Gawler Country Music Club events.

But how many of us know about Mettwurst?

Ma is about to enlighten us...

Mettwurst is a strongly flavoured German or Dutch sausage made from raw minced pork, which is preserved by curing and smoking.

The southern German variety is soft and similar to Teewurst.

Braunschweiger mettwurst is smoked somewhat but still soft and spreadable, while other northern German varieties such as the Holsteiner are harder and more akin to salami, due to longer smoking.

The Low German word mett, meaning minced pork without bacon, is derived from the Old Saxon word meti (meaning food), and is related to the English word 'meat'.

Mettwurst can be cooked or fried or spread on rye bread with onions and eaten raw.

Due to the large German immigration to South Australia (for example, the town of Hahndorf), mettwurst is very common and is created in the North German style.

It is often used in school lunches and for snacks during parties.

At Gawler Country Music Club people are addicted!

Kalleske's Meats seem to have gained a huge fan base with The Mettwurst's appearing at our venue regularly! They can't sing.... but they sure do have a nice hum!
