Newsletter of the Gawler Country Music Club Inc November 2012 No: 234

Taylor Pfeiffer
 The Yodelling Banjo Girl

When the New York newspapers wrote "Mary Schneider, Australia's Queen Of Yodelling takes New York by storm," it was maybe a sign that Australia has something in the air, providing the perfect environment for developing talent.

Could it be that history is about to repeat itself, and our young South Australian talented Taylor Pfeiffer is about to take the world by storm?

Gawler Country Music Club has been fortunate enough to have Taylor appearing at their venue on many occasions.

The now... tall thirteen year young girl has won a long string of vocal and instrumental awards.

Taylor began learning the banjo at the age of 7. Her favourite Aussie artists include Mary Schneider, Melinda Schneider, Shirley Thoms, Kasey Chambers, The Davidson Brothers, Slim Dusty and Tex Morton.

Taylor, now dubbed "The Banjo Girl" has had great success in Tamworth and is building a great reputation throughout the Country Music Industry.

For her age Taylor, with her yodelling and banjo playing skills, must surely be one of a kind.

Her voice, pitch perfect as it is, will no doubt mature as Taylor adds a few more years to her life experience as a rising star.

From a waist high youngster to a tall young lady capable of looking you straight in the eyes, Taylor has progressed to a level most young artists dream of. However, it's been said before; putting in the time and effort; parental and peer support and having a clear goal for the future, all add to the prospects of success.

In the beginning we had Skippy the Bush Kangaroo and now we have Taylor Pfeiffer... the Banjo Girl.

Best wishes for the future Taylor. Keep up the yodelling!

Gawler Country Music Club will continue to support you in reaching even greater heights!
