

When like-minded people get together and accept a challenge, they can achieve wonderful things. The really U.G.L.Y. Barmaid Vicki of Elizabeth RSL is all in for the U.G.L.Y. Bartender of the Year challenge.

Every $80 does a beautiful thing...

The money raised helps the Leukaemia Foundation support people with blood cancers.

Every $80 raised can provide a regional family with a fully furnished 'home away from home' for one night near a major hospital if they have to move to be closer to treatment. That's a beautiful thing isn't it?

Call in to see Vicki at Elizabeth RSL Midway Road, Elizabeth East if you want more information.

It's all happening Oct 1, 2012 8:00AM 'til Nov 9, 2012 11:45 PM Support your U.G.L.Y. bartender of the year in SA!

U.G.L.Y. bartenders are competing to raise the most funds by holding quirky and fun events in their community. Great prizes are up for grabs for the top 5 U.G.L.Y. bartenders and the winning pub.

Remember. Eddie Patterson

Last month's Gawler CMC newsletter introduced you to Eddie Patterson who has written hundreds of poems over the years. This one came without a title, but I've called it

Remember. Things Are Not What They Seem

A young boy was walking along a quiet county road
When he met an old man with a heavy looking load

He said "May I help you?
I am going your way"
The old man said "Thanks,
You have brightened up my day"

So the lad took the load
and they both walked along
The boy he was tiring
while the old man sang a song

Then the stranger said
"Let us rest a while There's no great hurry
to walk the next mile"

So they sat on the grass
warmed by the sun
Then the man said "My Boy
Do you know what you have done?"

That load isn't heavy
It's what you saw with your mind
If you open up the bag
some balloons you will find

You should always remember things are not what they seem
The facts of life
can sometimes be a dream

But if everyone was as nice and as kind as you are
The world would be a better place
and happier by far.

You may be inspired to think about the people who have helped and assisted you in your times of need.
The people who have stuck with you when times have been tough.

Good one Eddie!

Why You Should Always Watch Your Language!

Two Arab terrorists are in a locker room taking a shower after their bomb making class in Melbourne, when one notices the other has a huge cork stuck up his bum.

'If you do not mind me saying,' stated the second Arab, "That cork looks very uncomfortable. Why don't you take it out?"

I regret I cannot", lamented the first Arab. "It is permanently stuck in my bum."

"I do not understand," said the other. The first Arab says, "I was walking along Russell Street, and I tripped over an oil lamp.

There was a puff of smoke, and then a huge old man wrapped in an Australian Flag attire with a white beard and Akubra hat came boiling out.

He said, "I am Captain Aussie, the Genie. I can grant you one wish."

I said, "No shit?"

Chad Morgan Live

Narrated by rock musician Tex Perkins, I'M NOT DEAD YET is the 'unplugged' chronicle of 78 year-old, country music legend Chad Morgan and his wife Joanie, as they travel and perform throughout regional and outback Australia.

Just a Thought From Bill Northcott!

"Dogs Welcome"

A Gawlerman wrote a letter to a small hotel in Queensland where he planned to visit on vacation. He wrote: "I would very much like to bring my dog with me. He is well-groomed and very well behaved. Would you be willing to permit me to keep him in my room with me at night?"

An immediate reply came from the hotel owner, who wrote: "Sir: I've been operating this hotel for many years. In all that time, I've never had a dog steal towels, bedclothes, silverware or pictures off the walls. I've never had to evict a dog in the middle of the night for being drunk and disorderly. And I've never had a dog run out on a hotel bill. Yes, indeed, your dog is welcome at my hotel. And, if your Dog will vouch for you; you're welcome to stay here, too."
